LAWRENCE MEN ARRAIGNED HERE FOR DRY LAW VIOLATIONS

Counsel for Defendants Raises Novel Point—Questions Legality of Warrant Based on Federal Agent's Sense of Taste—May Take Matter to Supreme Court

The question of whether it is lawful for a federal search warrant to be issued on information furnished by a commissioner by an agent based upon the agent's sense of taste, as in the instance of drinking a glass of beer and determining its alcoholic content by taste, was raised before United States Commissioner R. D. Walsh here today, by Attorney Augustine Dopley of Lawrence, who declared he would take it to the United States supreme court for a decision if necessary.

The question came up during a hearing of charges of manufacture and possession against George East, Henry Poltrus and Henry Lemay, all of Lawrence, arrested in that city on November 3. Attorney Dopley questioned the legality of the warrant in the case on the grounds that it was obtained solely upon an agent's statement based upon his sense of taste.

After hearing, Commissioner Walsh discharged Lemay and held East and Poltrus for federal court.

Carmelo Scuito and Tony Massino, Lawrence, charged with illegal transportation, were continued to November 23 for hearing and Joseph Corrado, Lawrence, was found probably guilty of violations of the prohibition laws and held for court.

ELECTION BOARD STARTS RECOUNT ON PETITION OF FRED O. LEWIS

Petitioner Was Defeated By Cornelius J. O'Neill in the 15th Representative District By Margin of 65 Votes—Will Not Complete Recount Today

The recount of votes cast in the state election for representative in the fifteenth district, as petitioned of the election commission by Rep. Fred O. Lewis, who was defeated for reelection by Cornelius J. O'Neill by a margin of 65 votes, was begun this morning and this afternoon had resulted in a net gain of 19 votes for Mr. O'Neill with precincts 1 and 2 of ward 3 complete.

Both Mr. Lewis and Mr. O'Neill were present in person and Mr. Lewis was accompanied by Edgar M. Kent, secretary of the Lowell republican committee, while Attorney J. Joseph Hennessey was with Mr. O'Neill.

The recount is being held in the councilmanic chamber and started at 9:30 o'clock. Precinct 1 of Ward 3 was first counted and in the first block of 85 votes Mr. O'Neill lost and Mr. Lewis gained one. Through the whole vote of the precinct a number of slight

PLOTTERS DISPOSE OF $100,000 WORTH OF B. & M. TICKETS

"Master Mind" of Plot Confesses—Had Been Buying Tickets for Last Two Years From Conductors—Resold Them to Passengers at Reduced Rates

PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 13.—A scheme which is alleged to have enabled the plotters to dispose of $100,000 worth of Boston & Maine railroad tickets by re-selling them to passengers, was revealed here today with the arrest of Patrick Joseph Connors of this city, the alleged "master mind" in the plot to which he has confessed, according to the authorities.

Several conductors, a local attorney, several local brokers and a Boston man are said to be involved in the case. Connors is alleged to have confessed that he had been buying the tickets from conductors for the past two years and selling them. He is proprietor of a novelty shop at 57-A Congress street, and had maintained a cigar store opposite Union station.

Lowell Police Officer and Two Companions Plead Guilty to Illegal Possession

(Special to The Sun)
BOSTON, Nov. 13.—Louis O. Lemay, police officer, and Alfred Lampron and Edmund J. Lessard, all of Lowell, arrested on October 12 on charges of illegal possession of 77 gallons of liquor at a camp at Mud pond, Tyngsboro, pleaded guilty before Judge Morton in United States district court today and were continued until Monday, Nov. 17, at 2 p. m. for disposition.

In the presentation of the case the court was told that the liquor was seized at an outing held at the Mud pond camp for political and sporting purposes, that 37 men were present at the time of the raid and that a high official of the city of Lowell had just left prior to the appearance of the federal agents and other officers.

Lemay's appearance in court was marked by extreme agitation on his part and at the close of the proceedings he broke into tears.

JURY ACQUITS REP. J. P. HILL

Freed of Charge of Violating Volstead Law by Manufacturing Wine

Fifth and Sixth Counts Charging Hill With Maintaining Nuisance Dismissed

BALTIMORE, Nov. 13.—Representative John Philip Hill, of Baltimore, was acquitted by a jury in United States court today of violating the Volstead law by manufacturing intoxicating wine and cider at his home.

The 5th and 6th counts of the indictment, which charged Hill with maintaining a common nuisance at his home were dismissed under instructions from Judge Morris A. Soper.

The trial was the result of a test case forced by Colonel Hill, who maintained that the Volstead law gave the farmer a right to manufacture cider and wine, but withheld from the city man the right to manufacture beer.

The trial brought from Judge Soper a possible commercial source of starch has been found in the ferns of the Pacific.

Local Health Authorities Take Precautionary Measures Because of Scarlet Fever Epidemics in Nearby Places—Follow-up System in Schools is Great Preventive

Regardless of the fact that severe scarlet fever epidemics are raging in Manchester, N. H., and Methuen, this city is very free, not only from these diseases but other contagious illnesses, according to officials of the board of health. But because the prevalence of scarlet fever in this section, every possible precautionary measure is being taken to keep the city health state clean.

Through the "follow-up" system installed in the school by Dr. Francis A. Finnegan, director of school hygiene, every case of an infectious disease reported to the board of health by family physicians is carefully traced

BUTLER APPOINTED TO SUCCEED LODGE AS U. S. SENATOR

Gov. Cox Names G. O. P. National Chairman to Fill Vacancy Caused by Death of Bay State Senior Senator—Will Qualify at Once

BOSTON, Nov. 13.—William M. Butler, lawyer and manufacturer, who is chairman of the republican national committee, was appointed to succeed the late Henry Cabot Lodge as United States senator from Massachusetts by Governor Cox today. The governor had assurances that he will accept.

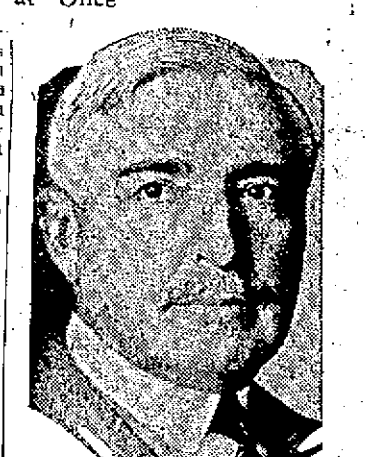

The appointment is for approximately two years as the seat cannot be filled by election until the next general election in 1926. This is in accordance with a law enacted two years ago, giving the governor authority to appoint a successor to fill such vacancies as may develop between elections.

Senator Lodge's term would have expired in 1928, and the winner of the election two years hence will serve only until that time.

The senator-designate will qualify at Washington in time to take his seat when congress convenes on Dec. 8.

TO RE-INVESTIGATE ALLEGED LETTER FROM ZINOVIEFF

British Cabinet to Establish Whether the Letter Was Genuine or a Forgery in Order to reply to Soviet Government's Demand for an Apology

LONDON, Nov. 13.—(By the Associated Press.)—The cabinet has announced a cabinet committee to re-investigate the alleged letter from Mr. Zinovieff calling for increased activities on the part of the British communists, according to statements in some of the morning newspapers. The cabinet committee will be asked to report on the matter. It is believed the committee's report will be ready for submission to the cabinet on Monday.

FORMER CITY EMPLOYEE FOUND DEAD AT HOME

The lifeless body of John Tobin, of 18 Garret street, a veteran employee of the city in the ashes and waste department, was found in the kitchen of his home yesterday afternoon after police had broken down the door of his tenement. Three gas burners were opened.

Later yesterday afternoon neighbors smelled gas issuing from Tobin's tenement and notified the police. Officers James P. Garrity and Joseph A. Clark were sent to investigate. After forcing the door, they found the dead man on a couch in the kitchen. Medical Examiner Allyn Jones notified and ordered the body removed to the undertaking establishment of William Mack in Gorham street.

Decensed is survived by three daughters, Helen and Sadie Tobin and Mrs. Henry, all residing in Gorham street. Also, Thomas, Edward and Charles, all of Lowell; three sisters, Mrs. Daniel Dillon of Lowell; Mrs. James Travers of Lawrence; and Mrs. Agnes Trainor of New York. Mr. Tobin was a member of Lowell Aerie, Fraternal Union of Eagles, and the City Employees' Union.

Mr. Humphrey was connected with the old Worthen Street church for many years, later going to the Highland Union church where he was chairman of the board of trustees. His passing will be mourned by a large circle of friends. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Alida H. Humphrey; one son, Raymond M. Humphrey; one brother, Charles H. of Milltown, N. B.; also a sister, Mrs. Samuel Fleming of Lowell. Funeral notice later.

NATION-WIDE JEWEL SMUGGLING CONSPIRACY IS UNCOVERED

Customs Service Agents Working in Half Dozen Sections of County Since Killing of Mrs. Mors Recover Stolen Gems Worth $250,000

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—A jewel smuggling conspiracy of vast dimensions has been uncovered by customs service agents working in half a dozen sections of the country since the killing last August of Mrs. Theresa Mors in Los Angeles. Smuggled jewelry valued at more than $250,000 already has been seized and a man known as Mediansky, who is said to have left the country, is being sought as the active director, if not the actual head, of the conspiracy, in which he is alleged to have had a dozen or more allies.

MALNUTRITION BLAMED Chief Factor in Producing Ill Health and Degenerate Tendencies

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 13.—If the youth of our country could have been taught to eat more apples and other fruit, one-half of the inmates of our reformatories would never have reached them, Paul O. Sampson, food expert with the National League of Consumers Merchants, declared today in a talk before the New Jersey Pomological society. Malnutrition is one of the chief factors in producing ill health and degenerate tendencies, according to Mr. Sampson, who stated that he would like to see all candy stores driven at least a mile away from school houses.

PONZI TO GO ON TRIAL AGAIN ON MONDAY

BOSTON, Nov. 13.—Following the announcement of a jury disagreement in the Ponzi case, Dist. Atty. O'Brien declared he would place Ponzi on trial again on Monday morning next. He intimated that he would try the case until there was either a verdict of guilty or of acquittal. Ponzi would say little after his jury reported yesterday morning that they had been unable to agree in their 11 hours of deliberation. When comment was made upon the manner in which he tried his own case, he said he had studied much during his incarceration in the Plymouth jail as a federal prisoner. He admitted he made mistakes, but said that with the kindly assistance of Judge Bishop and the foreman of the jury, he was able to get in most of the evidence which he desired.

He still insisted that he was innocent of any wrong intention in starting his scheme. "I was perfectly willing to have one judge decide whether or not I was guilty of criminal intent," he said. "In fact I suggested that one judge be allowed to dispose of the case. This was made impossible because a non cannot waive his constitutional rights to trial by jury."

While waiting around the court room Tuesday afternoon Ponzi intimated he thought the government would have had enough of his case if the jury were unable to agree and would give the state credit for him. The jury were given the case about 2 p. m. on Tuesday and were out until 1 a. m. yesterday morning. They appear to have been deadlocked from the beginning.

The same indictments will be placed against Ponzi on Monday with the exception of the one on which Judge Bishop ordered a verdict for him. The charges alleged in these four indictments totals $200.

SALE OF INDECENT LITERATURE CHARGED

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—John H. Flordan, sales manager of the New Flordan corporation of this city, was arraigned today as a fugitive from justice and held in $1500 pending his return to Boston to answer an indictment charging the sale of salacious and indecent literature. The charge is based on an article which appeared recently in a fiction magazine.

The Watch and Ward society of Boston was the complainant. Flordan waived extradition and will return to Boston when police come from that city for him.

STRIKERS ORDERED TO LEAVE HOUSES

MIDDLEBORO, Nov. 13.—Striking operatives of the Nemasak mill, who have been out for two months, received notices yesterday that they would have to vacate the mill's tenement houses where they are living, within the next 14 days. The notices came through a local attorney's office.

There are 14 families affected by the notice, and all of them are subsisting on funds which have been advanced them by workers in other textile centers. The strike is in protest against operating looms with two-color filling.

QUITS ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE

Official Believes He Can Do More for Law Enforcement On Outside

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 13.—Arthur E. Tarbell, assistant superintendent of the Rhode Island Anti-Saloon league since March, 1923, yesterday resigned "because I am of the firm conviction I can do more for the cause of law enforcement outside than within it," he said in his resignation letter.

Mr. Tarbell said a new body was being formed to include three other classes of law violators, which he named as corrupt officials, gamblers and prostitutes. He was former assistant superintendent of the Connecticut Anti-Saloon league, with offices in Hartford.

Borah Urges Extra Session

discussed at their conference. Administration officials close to the president indicated yesterday that he had no present plan for the calling of a special session. Senator Borah believes that little in the way of general legislation will be accomplished at the coming short session which is to be devoted largely to work on appropriations. He regards delay until the regular meeting of the new congress in December of next year as unnecessary and unwarranted.

As a result of the death of Senator Lodge, Mr. Borah is in line for chairmanship of the foreign relations committee, which is charged with chief responsibility for action on the world court proposal. He said today he would not have any specific plan for such action, but thought the question should be brought up and disposed of one way or another.

An opinion contrary to that of Mr. Borah was expressed by Representative Hiram Burton, republican, Ohio, another White House caller, who said he saw no necessity for an extra session and believed that in addition to the appropriation bills such farm measures as are necessary can be passed at the short session. Mr. Burton discussed this question briefly with the president.

In connection with the extra session proposal, Mr. Borah believed the commission appointed to recommend farm relief measures would have ample time to report by next March 4. Senator Borah placed himself on record as against effort to "read out of the party" republicans who had associated themselves with the La Follette movement in the recent election. He declared they "should be read in," adding "the main question is whether La Follette wants to come into the party."

"He may not wish to come in," he said. Senator Borah said he told the president he believed the republican party should "legislate as close to the election returns as possible" and for that reason, if it were possible, immediate steps should be taken even at the short session of congress for enactment of transportation laws and the development of reclamation projects.

The president agreed with him, the Idaho senator said, that the report of the fact finding commission on reclamation should be adopted. This commission was appointed by the interior department and has suggested appropriations for a number of developments.

MAJ. WEEKS TO BE PROMOTED

BOSTON, Nov. 13.—Major Sinclair Weeks, son of the secretary of war, is named for promotion to lieutenant colonel of field artillery in the national guard officers' eligible list issued today by the Massachusetts adjutant general.

SCHEDULE OF FINES FOR CITY HALL STAFF

MALDEN, Nov. 13.—A regular schedule of fines for members of the Everett city hall staff who get into fights while on duty and later are convicted of assault, was drawn up by J. G. Bruce in the local court today. The fine will be $25.

When John McNeil, chairman of the Everett board of registration of voters, came before the court charged with assault on Frank R. Pettengill, city clerk of Everett, the judge asked court attendants what punishment he had imposed for the last city hall fight. Then he imposed a fine.

According to the evidence, the men quarreled Nov. 1 over the system of handling absentee votes. McNeil appeared.

MRS. HARDING HAD RESTLESS NIGHT

MARION, O., Nov. 13.—Mrs. Warren G. Harding, who is critically ill with kidney trouble, was reported as not so well, according to a bulletin issued today by Dr. Carl W. Sawyer, her physician. The bulletin read:

"Mrs. Harding had a very restless and painful night and is not so well this morning."

Instead of being given to newspapermen by Dr. Sawyer, the bulletin was read over the telephone by a nurse. This was taken to indicate that Dr. Sawyer is remaining close to the bedside of his patient.

POISONED CIDER DEATH TOLL REMAINS AT 10

LYNCHBURG, Va., Nov. 13.—Although 4 of the 7 aged residents of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks national home at Bedford, who were poisoned Monday by elder containing poison, still were in a critical condition today, attending physicians were more optimistic over the outcome of the illness of all of them. The improvement in condition of most of the patients gave rise to the hope that despite their advanced years they would withstand the ravages of the poison. The list of those who died from the effects of the poison remains at ten.

Funeral services and burial of the dead were begun today.

Atrocities Will Amaze World

of such strategic and economic value, late submission to its rule, Prince Davis said, the best government is resorting to methods of cold-blooded butchery. The prince, who arrived here this week, was forced to flee from his native land because of threats on his life.

Since 1919, he said, at least 20,000 Georgians have been slaughtered without trial. A shipload of natives was taken on a Georgian sea and the vessel sunk, with some reason. Others are called to their doors and shot down. Rigorous censorship is in effect.

In 1919, after 60 years of Russian domination, Georgia rebelled and set up a republic at Tiflis. The prince's father, Zheko Mdivani, renounced his title and was made premier of the patriot, Gordin, who was the provisional president. The land was happy for but a short time. The Bolsheviks soon realized the importance of dominating Georgia and sent an army of 60,000 against the Georgians. After gaining control, the Bolsheviks either deported or killed the elder men of fighting age and subjugated the younger men.

Prince Davis says there are, besides himself, about 30 Georgians in the United States. They are studying American laws and American standards with the view to some day returning to their native land and making it as near like America as possible.

ANOTHER BURST OF PUBLIC BUYING

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Cessation of heavy profit-taking in today's stock market was followed by another burst of public buying, which carried more than two dozen issues to new peak prices for the year. Trading, which started out in rather moderate fashion, soon assumed the terrific pace of the last few days, sales in the first three hours totalling nearly 1,400,000 shares. FRATERNAL NEWS

A regular meeting of Club Citizens-Americans was held last evening in the club rooms in Middle street with President Raul Dione in the chair. Routine business was transacted and a number of committee reports filed. Chairman Lagasse of the amusement committee announced that a whist party and dance will be held Friday evening and that "old-fashioned night" will be observed Thanksgiving night. Alfred Harnels, chairman of the committee in charge of the pool and billiard tournament, stated that this event would be started the latter part of next week.

Consell Recheambeau met in regular session last evening in its headquarters with a large attendance. Routine business was transacted and talks on the good of the order were made by a number of officers and prominent members.

The British-American Social club observed Armistice day with an old English tea party at its headquarters in the Free church, Middlesex street, Tuesday evening. Among the guests were Rev. George C. Wright of the Free church and Miss Caroline Wright, Rev. Alice Haire of the Lawrence Street P. M. church and Mr. Haire.

W. S. Dawson was chairman of the evening and after speaking briefly on the Anglo-Saxon spirit, introduced Rev. Mrs. Haire, who gave a talk on conditions resulting from the world war. An entertainment program was given as follows:

Piano solo, Miss Eskay; dance, Eva Rice; song, W. Dodson; harp and piano duet, Mrs. Rice and Alice Rice; song, G. Whitley; trombone and cornet duet, Master A. E. Dawson and Master A. Sweetair; song, G. Wilcox; songs, Miss Eskay. Miss Eskay was the accompanist.

The committee in charge of the affair follows: Mrs. J. Nolan, chairman; Mrs. Parley, Mrs. Cronshaw, Mrs. Buchanan, Mrs. Tait, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Vincent, Mrs. Fanson, Mrs. Cowgill and W. S. Dawson, J. Tait, G. Marshall, Mr. Johnson.

THE BARBER OF SEVILLE

Opera Comique Presented Here by Manhattan Opera Company of New York

Local opera enthusiasts had last evening an opportunity to enjoy "The Barber of Seville," the world's most famous opera comique, in English given by the Manhattan Opera Company of New York, in the Memorial Auditorium, under the personal direction of Klugeberg Foster.

Given in song and in dialogue the presentation was most enjoyable although in parts the measures of the musical compositions were so rapid as to make interpretation rather difficult.

The story of the opera, taken from an old French farce, was expertly treated by the players while the setting representing a courtyard scene, which served for the entire presentation, was well suited to the occasion.

Vincent Garilli, as Count Almaviva and later as a music master and lover, had an opportunity to display his ability as a tenor in the second scene although his opening serenade was well given.

The Barber, impersonated by Leon Hoffmeister, literally sang his way into the hearts of his auditors. A well-rounded baritone voice which was most pleasing even in the more difficult passages of the opera, interpreted to advantage the principal role.

Isador Merrill, as Dr. Bartolo, guardian of the beautiful Rosina, whom he wishes to marry, played his part well and as a crusty, capricious old fellow he was very entertaining. Although not heard much in song, the physician possesses a fine buffo-tenor voice.

Rosina, the heroine, played by Miss Lucille Banner, soprano, was indeed most pleasing. Of a charming

Thousands Have Used
This RED BLOOD FOOD

If you are weak, sickly, nervous and run-down, what you need is not merely stimulating medicines and drugs, but something that will put more iron into your blood to make it rich and red, so that it can carry health to every nerve and muscle of your body. Thousands of men and women have benefited every trace of that weak, tired-out feeling and increased their strength, energy and endurance often in just two weeks' time by simply taking organic iron—Nuxated Iron.

For Nuxated Iron is a wonderful new combination of organic iron, like the iron in your own blood. It is entirely different from ordinary iron medicines. It does not injure the teeth or disturb the stomach. Furthermore, it is so highly concentrated that one dose is equal to eating one-half quart of spinach or a quart of green vegetables. Take Nuxated Iron for just two weeks and you'll be naturally how much stronger and better you feel. Money back if not delighted. At all good druggists.

AFRAID SHE COULD NOT LIVE

Operation Advised, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made It Unnecessary

Glasgow, Kentucky. "I was run-down, nervous, with no appetite. My side had given me trouble for five or six years. At times it was all I could do to get up and the doctor said I couldn't live but a short time longer without an operation. That was two years ago. My sister-in-law recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She had never used it herself, but she said one of her neighbors had just used it and it cured her. After I had taken four bottles the pain left my side. I had fine appetite to eat anything that was put before me, and I began to do all my work and my washing, something I hadn't done for years. I am a dress-maker, and this last fall I began suffering with my side again, so I began taking the Vegetable Compound again. I am on my fourth bottle, which makes eight in all I have taken. I feel so much better when I take it and everybody tells me I look better. My appetite improves and I feel stronger in every way. I am a very nervous woman and it seems to help my nerves so much."—Mrs. MAGGIE WALLER, Glasgow, Kentucky.

Good Thing to Know about stopping a cold

At the first snuffle take a stiff dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, expel the congestion and avoid a cold

THE commonest afflictions of mankind are constipation and colds. Combined they indirectly cause the majority of untimely deaths. It is when constipated that you are most subject to colds, so keep the bowels open.

Sneezing is almost always the first warning of a cold. Don't wait; don't hope that it will go away of itself. Take a spoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, cleansing the intestines of accumulated poisons, bundle up warmly and the cold will be gone by morning. Colds cannot "run their course" when stopped at the outset. That spoonful of Syrup Pepsin may stop it.

A good laxative is a necessity in the home. Since Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the largest selling liquid laxative in the world, over 10 million bottles being sold annually, the majority of families must prefer it.

And rightly so, for in the 30 years it has been on the market it has relieved thousands of people of those ailments it was designed to remedy, such as constipation, biliousness, indigestion, flatulency, sour stomach, dyspepsia, bad breath, fevers and colds. It will relieve any disorder associated with constipation. It is the safest, most gentle intestinal treatment can get. Mr. J. C. Boney, 569 Main St., Biloxi, Miss., and

Mr. Walter Duminake, 797 Wheelock St., Detroit, Mich., are never without a bottle in their homes. They attribute their uniform good health to having it handy when needed. You will find it in every drug store. A dose costs about a cent.

There is no secret about the contents of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and you will find it stated on the package, a vegetable compound of Egyptian senna with pepsin and pleasant aromatics, free from narcotics and opiates. It is just such a laxative as is ideally suited to families, safe for the young and effective for the old. Make up your mind to buy a bottle, and if for any reason whatever it does not come up to your expectations, your money will be refunded.

Dangerous Agonizing Asthma!

Simple New England Prescription of Essential Oils Gives Speedy Relief—Makes Breathing Easy.

In New England, where Bronchial Asthma, Bronchitis and other diseases of the throat and lungs are so prevalent, remarkably successful results are being reported following the use of a new form of treatment known as Oxidase, a physician's prescription.

Oxidase is a harmless but powerful combination of curative essential oils concentrated and compressed into a small tablet. One of these tablets slowly dissolved before going to bed seems to have the effect of releasing the muscular constriction of the bronchial tubes, opening up the air passages and regulating spasmodic lung action. This enables the patient to breathe easily and naturally while lying down and to get a comfortable night's sleep.

So much interest has been shown that local druggists, including Green's Drug Store and Liggott's, have secured a small supply and state that they are authorized to refund the money paid for the first package if in any case this new treatment fails to give relief. Oxidase is pleasant to take, contains no harmful, habit-forming drugs and is not expensive. This makes their test an easy matter.—Adv.

SHARP SHOOTING PAINS IN LIMBS

Mrs. Duffy Says That Every Bone in Her Body Ached With Rheumatic Pains

"I had severe pains in the muscles of my back and through my right hip," says Mrs. Thomas Duffy, of No. 44 Huntington Avenue, Worcester, Mass. "At times every bone in my body would ache and there were sharp, shooting pains through my limbs. I could not sleep and I was unable to do my housework. My legs ached so that I could hardly pull myself upstairs. I took treatment for rheumatism but nothing really helped me until I tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills after reading in a paper of the good they had done in a case similar to mine.

"After the second box I noticed that I was getting rid of the pain and stiffness. By the time I had taken five boxes I was all right again. The pains had gone and I could walk without difficulty and do my own housework. With the relief from the pain I was able to get good rest at night and I not only gained in strength but also in weight.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold by your own druggist or will be sent direct by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, sixty cents per box. Write to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for free booklet, "Building Up the Blood," containing a special chapter on rheumatism.—Adv.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY EXTENSION SERVICE

The sixth annual meeting of Middlesex County Extension Service and the Middlesex County Farm Bureau is to be held Saturday, Nov. 15, at the usual rallying place—Odd Fellows hall, Waltham. It is an event always looked forward to expectantly by leading county farmers, their wives and even the children, for there are programs arranged to interest all persons in any way connected with the conduct of modern farms and market garden prospects.

Starting at 10.15 a. m., Saturday morning will be devoted to a discussion of the year's accomplishments and talks by President N. T. Howitt, County Commissioners A. L. Catling and Erson D. Barlow, also other prominent men.

At noon, the annual "Middlesex county dinner" will be served, with willing ladies from numerous county towns bringing viands from the country kitchens always the finest that can be found at a festival of the farmers and their friends.

The Farm Bureau members—and their numbers are steadily increasing today in Braintree, Billerica and Tewksbury, which towns lead all the rest at present—are to hold a business meeting with election of officers, in the afternoon. The proposed "grain pool," which has been fostered by grange national organization leaders, and which has been endorsed by many New England affiliated granges, among them being Carlisle, Littleton, Harvard, Acton, Concord and Stow, will be talked about once more, some now suggestions received in regard to grain prices and letting out farmers' contracts, and then the discussion will turn to spring fertilizers and their volume purchase by the combination order to save the most money and get most for the price paid.

This method of purchasing expensive fertilizers and the nitrates is now generally adopted where farmers can be got together in any locality in sufficient numbers to put the whole-sale buying plan through on a strictly cash-as-you-receive basis. The Middlesex County Extension Service deserves full credit for first suggesting the plan in the first place, and handling all details covering issuance of bids, selecting lowest prices for quality and making the deliveries practically to the farmers and market-gardeners' doors. Good money is thus saved in the process of securing required fertilizers of quality for the next year's crops.

demonstrations, so-called. Leaders interested in particular subjects referring to the home of "city" folks as well as country folk, will also be present and will speak on problems that sometimes vex even gold medal house-keepers.

Then there comes a rally of the so-called 4-H club leaders. Achievement club directors and all others interested in club work, to consider questions of organization, leadership and winter club programs.

Again, starting at 8 o'clock in the afternoon, there will be a joint session at which time Dean Sarah Louise Arnold, formerly of Simmons college, and an excellent speaker with a splendid message to deliver at gatherings of modern home-makers, will deliver an address upon "Ideals of a Country Home." Farm Bureau members say that tests ought to go very, very big next Saturday afternoon.

Not forgetting, of course, the notable exhibits of important farm products and gardening pursuits, that the active county agents will also display in Odd Fellows hall, Waltham, all day

Saturday. There's a climax for one folks from the farms. It is a straight and all in this particular display that all county-agents exhibition rarely is by no means of small proportions made anywhere else at this season of the year.

This Trophy Your Guarantee of Finest Quality

Old Home Potato Bread

A companion loaf to BETSY ROSS, is baked with the same care and skill, from choicest ingredients. It differs from BETSY ROSS only in that it is made especially for people who want bread with a real, home-made flavor. The quality of the two loaves is the same.

CONFIRMING the opinion of thousands of housewives, the Harry M. Freer silver trophy guarantees that BETSY ROSS Bread is a loaf of the highest quality. This trophy was won in an international bread quality contest. Nearly 200 loaves were entered. BETSY ROSS was adjudged the finest of all these loaves.

The winning of the Freer Trophy gives housewives an unbiased estimate of the goodness of BETSY ROSS Bread. It is proof that this loaf is just what we have always tried to make—a loaf without a superior.

If you have not already chosen BETSY ROSS as your daily bread, be guided by the judgment of disinterested authorities and try a loaf today. You will agree that finer bread never has been offered in your home.

HELD BOX PARTY

An enjoyable box party was held in Odd Fellows hall last evening by over 75 young men and women. Manuel Diaz and Miss Ethel Poultot were in charge of the auction sale. Following the sale an entertainment program was given with the following participating: Manuel Diaz, Miss Esther Landry, Miss Ethel Poultot, Charles Souza, Raymond Pelletier and Albert O'Brien. Refreshments were served by the hospitality committee and dancing was enjoyed.

ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION

Create Gas, Sourness and Pain. How to Treat.

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sours, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try taking as little as digestive aids and instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Disrupted Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water with each meal. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Disrupted Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—neither liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.—Adv.

RED PEPPER HEAT ENDS CHEST COLDS

Ease your tight, aching chest. Stop the pain. Break up the congestion. Feel a bad cold loosen up in just a short time.

"Red Pepper Rub" is the cold remedy that brings quickest relief. It cannot hurt you and it certainly seems to end the tightness and drive the congestion and soreness right out.

Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers and when heat penetrates right down into cold congestion, aching muscles and sore, stiff joints relief comes at once.

The moment you apply Red Pepper Rub you feel the tingling heat. In three minutes the congested spot is warmed through and through. When you are suffering from a cold, rheumatism, backache, stiff neck or sore muscles, just get a jar of Rowles Red Pepper Rub, made from red peppers, at any drug store. You will have the quickest relief known.—Adv.

DR. DAVID JOSLIN'S OINTMENT

RELIEVES ALL COUGHS AND COLDS At Your Druggists

BUSINESS IS GOOD AT THE CAR SHOPS

Billerica car shops are operating regularly on full-week working schedules in every department except one. The wood-working section has a temporary five-day employment schedule for the present.

The plant pay-roll now shows a daily employment complement of nearly 3000 machinists, carpenters, painters and other necessary workmen in branches busy regularly in locomotive and car repair departments.

Because of the extra work called for in the former branch, about 60 men are employed nights, on shifts from 3 p. m. until 5:40 a. m. These men are from Lowell, and return to the city on the morning "special" that leaves the Billerica yards at 5:40 and departs from Lowell every week day for Billerica at 7:12 a. m. The day work is on the 45-hour basis, as usual.

Today, between 500 and 900 car shop workers make their homes in Lowell. Very few local employees went "down the line" each morning during the car shop strike and for some little time after the strike was settled. Today, however, "old times on the sunrise roster" is the rule and, according to reports will be likely to continue indefinitely while the B. & M. is furnishing up all old equipment and keeping its rejuvenatorial experts busy.

Several new Lowell workmen, woodworkers' label, have secured jobs there this month and are sticking closely and boasting of their luck. One of them has been a Middlesex station employee for several years, but caught the favor to join the Billerica shopmen's "gang" from seeing the crews pile onto the morning "extra" that carries them all back and forth daily to their places of employment.

COMMODORE HALL ROOM "Maid" stables and orchestra will be the attraction at the Commodore ballroom this evening and again on Saturday evening. There will be dancing from 8:30 until 12, the ticket system being used. The admission on both evenings will be 10 cents.

Any Skin Eruption Healed With Sulphur

Irritation and Breaking Out Often Healed Over Night, Says Skin Specialist

Any breaking out or skin irritation on face, neck or body is overcome quickest by applying Menthio-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation that instantly brings ease from the itching, burning and irritation.

Menthio-Sulphur heals eczema right up, leaving the skin clear and smooth. It soothes itches to relieve the torment or disfigurement. A little jar of Rowles Menthio-Sulphur may be obtained at any drug store. It is used like cold cream.—Adv.

GAGNON EMPLOYEES HOLD ANNUAL BANQUET

Members of the Gagnon Company Employees' Mutual Benefit association held their annual banquet and meeting in the store last evening after the closing hour.

At 6:30 o'clock the business meeting was held with President James Saunders in the chair. The reports of the secretary, Miss Yvonne Lambert, and the treasurer, George Lancelot, were read and accepted. The election of officers followed and the result was as follows: President, Michael Moriarty; vice president, Catherine Mack; secretary, Irene Guinond; treasurer, George Lancelot; collector, Mabel Poloy; auditors, Emile Gagnon, Gertrude Burns and James Murphy.

A short talk was given the members following the election by James Murphy, manager of the "Annex."

Following the banquet, an entertainment consisting of songs by Mrs. Nora Regan Longin and Miss Cecile Moran, and dances by Miss Rose Russell was enjoyed. Upon the conclusion of the entertainment program, the members adjourned to the Crescent alleys, where bowling was enjoyed until late in the evening.

The guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gagnon, Emile Gagnon, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Desrosiers.

ST. PETER'S GIRLS' CLUB PRESENTS PLAY

"A Magician from Morocco," a play in three acts was given last evening by the St. Peter's Girls' club in the school hall before a large number of relatives and friends. The proceeds of which will be donated to the publishing fund of the "Buzz," a weekly paper written by the girls.

The sketch was most enjoyable, the scene being laid in the home of Alma Meredith at the close of the college season, and in the Aladdin Lamp Ten Room, Milton, N. H., where developments came to a rapid, yet pleasing climax.

The cast of characters in last evening's performance was as follows: Jacqueline Powers, Mary Kennelick, Constance Dean, Rose McLaughlin, Geraldine Mason, Anna Lawler, Alma Meredith, Edith McLaughlin, Aunt Matie, Alice Lardner, Barbara Martin, Corinne Regnier, Shirley Phillips, Margaret Donahue, Magician from Morocco, Mary Kennelick.

CHARGE W. S. STONE WITH INCONSISTENCY

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 13.—The United Mine Workers national headquarters has issued a statement charging Warren S. Stone, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, with inconsistency in handling union labor at the Coal river collieries, which is controlled by the brotherhood members. The statement says that Stone refused to pay the Jacksonville agreement union coal wage scale because he claimed the company could not afford it. It charges also that the coal river collieries has resorted to the practice of eviction, and that the company lately imported strike breakers to operate some of its mines.

SOME FINE MENUS FOR THE FAMILY

Breakfast—Orange juice, rolled oats cooked with raisins, creamed dried beef on toast, reheated scalloped potatoes, fried corn bread, grape jelly, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Pea soufflé, whole wheat bread, hearts of lettuce with French dressing, cranberry whip, drop cookies, milk, tea.

Dinner—Pot roast of beef, rice, potatoes with cheese, sliced white turnips in cream sauce, grape fruit salad, chocolate bread pudding, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.

A child under school age will find breakfast of orange juice, the cereal, toast, corn bread with butter and jelly and a glass of milk most satisfying. But kiddies of school age need the heartier meal suggested.

Pea Soufflé
Three tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 cup milk, 1 cup peas, rubbed through strainer, 2 eggs, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1/2 tablespoon minced parsley.

Melt butter under running water and rub through a sieve. There should be 1 cup. Melt butter, stir in flour and slowly add milk, stirring constantly. Add pea pulp to sauce. Beat yolks of eggs until thick and lemon colored and add to first mixture. Season with salt and pepper and parsley. Add whites of eggs beaten until stiff and dry. Do not stir rather with a stirring motion. Turn into a well buttered baking dish and bake in a moderate oven until firm to the touch. It will take from thirty to forty minutes to bake the soufflé. Serve at once or the soufflé will fall.

Cranberry Whip
Two cups cranberries, 1 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1/2 cup peaches granulated gelatin, 1/2 cup water, 2 eggs (whites).
Soak gelatin in cold water. Put 1/2 cups water and cranberries into a sauce pan and cook until berries are tender, about twenty minutes. Rub through a fine sieve. Add sugar and bring to a boiling point. Remove from the fire and add softened gelatin. Stir until gelatin is dissolved. Cool and add lemon juice. Beat whites of eggs until stiff and dry and fold into the whole mixture. Turn into a buttered baking dish and bake twenty minutes in a hot oven.

Baked Potatoes With Cheese
Three cups rice potatoes, 1 cup milk, 1/2 cup cheese, 1 egg, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, dash mustard.
Beat milk into hot potatoes and season with salt and pepper. Beat yolks of eggs until thick and add to potatoes. Add cheese and mustard and keep hot. Beat white of egg until stiff and dry and fold into mixture. Turn into a buttered baking dish and bake twenty minutes in a hot oven.

This is an ideal way to serve potatoes when the meat is light. It makes meat unnecessary for young children and the cheese and eggs provide a substitute.

A telephone call received at headquarters telling them "If you get a report of a gang shooting their guns in the east 77th street, don't pay any attention to it. The police was their automobile exhaust."

The shooting occurred after Rosen and Adelson returned from a pinhole game. As they drove in Rosen's car in his automobile, they were shot. The women found their husbands lying face down in the grass outside the open garage. Their clothes were rumpled and the sod trampled. Adelson was killed by two 25-caliber bullet, one of which pierced his throat, and the other passed through his head. Rosen's wound was above the heart, where a 25-caliber steel jacket bullet had passed. No weapons were found in the yard or garage. Neighbors reported having seen three men drive away in an automobile shortly after the shooting.

APPLY THE INDUSTRIAL "PANACEA"

Among the republican leaders, the talk of tax reductions is so insistent that it would not be surprising if they induced President Coolidge to call an extra session of congress to deal with the whole question.

The publication of the enormous income taxes paid by some industries shows the drain upon the resources and the crushing weight of the higher surtaxes coming down from war days. The republican leaders have agreed with Secretary Mellon that these taxes have been one of the main causes of the industrial depression and that if they be reduced as proposed by Secretary Mellon, business will receive an impetus that will be felt over the country in a great industrial revival and a call for the employees that have been idle for many months past.

The republican party will be in control, if the leaders want these surtaxes scaled down, the sooner it is done the better for all concerned. Business is on the mend anyhow, and if that will help, let the reduction be made as soon as possible. Before the publication of the income taxes, very few realized that some of the large industries of the country have had to pay millions of dollars in taxes over and above the ordinary taxes collected before the war. If relieved of these taxes they would certainly have greater encouragement to work their factories to full capacity.

Moreover, it is claimed that the capital which was driven to refuge in tax exempt securities would be invested in productive industry if these taxes were removed or even reduced to the extent favored by Secretary Mellon.

We should be glad to see the experiment tried. The republicans after March 4 next, will have a free hand and they can do as they please in this matter. The administration is responsible for the results and if it has a panacea for the business stagnation the people of all parties will welcome its application.

Senator Borah who has been opposed to President Coolidge on the world court and other matters of importance is insistent upon the calling of a special session of congress after March 4. The republicans will have to placate Borah who is one of the principal disturbers of the administration. He also advocates the recognition of Russia against which Secretary Hughes has firmly set his face. The administration leaders will undoubtedly hold a council of war to decide what they will do with the recalcitrant senators who have been opposed to many phases of the administration policy laid down by the president. These senators also demand that the administration shall promptly carry out its pledges of tax reduction and relief for the farming interests. This calls for congressional action before the regular time for the new congress to assemble a year from next December so that in all probability the president, although now against calling an extra session, may be forced to do so by the appeals from the moderate insurgents which the leaders wish to hold within the party traces.

THE QUESTION OF COAL

For the past month, the weather has been so fine that a great many people are said to have neglected or forgotten to lay in their supply of coal for the winter so that if cold weather came suddenly they would find difficulty in having their bins promptly filled.

Notwithstanding the fact that Lowell coal merchants are fairly well supplied with anthracite coal to meet all normal demands for some time to come, Chairman Eugene C. Hultman, of the state commission on the necessities of life, has issued an interesting statement in which he calls attention to the curtailment being made in Pennsylvania anthracite coal-mining operations at the present time.

In many respects, the production of anthracite from its immense pockets underground, has been practically stationary during the past ten years, Mr. Hultman tells us, while the population of the anthracite consuming portion of the country has increased about 15 per cent. Either the production of this coal must be increased or the consumption decreased to bring about a reduction in present prices for the hard coals, or even to prevent prices from going higher.

Attention is also called to the fact that the anthracite kings and the miners' union directly control the production and cannot be counted upon to increase the output, even at present high prices. Increasing the output, of course, would mean that prices for the different anthracite grades would have to come down, and that would not suit the Pennsylvania barons nor the organization of workers, both so closely allied in mining operations affecting yearly amount of production.

The old bogey to the effect that the supply of anthracite coal in the Pennsylvania regions will be exhausted in about eight or ten years, receives no support from eminent geologists in the government service. According to reliable investigators, the supply of anthracite in the grounds is estimated to be sufficient to serve the country's demands for about 150 years. Consequently, as Mr. Hultman brings out clearly in his survey of the coal situation, incidentally boosting the use of more bituminous coal in the homes, the ultimate depletion of coal is not a problem affecting the prices to the present generation.

There is plenty of coal in the mines, plenty in the local coal terminals; but at concerns most people just now on the verge of winter is whether there is enough in their cellars to serve through the cold season ahead.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION

It seems that according to the decision of a federal judge at Baltimore, Md., the restrictions of the Volstead law do not apply to the manufacture of elder fruit juices or even home brew for home consumption provided they are not for sale and that they are not intoxicating. This decision has resulted from the trial of a case brought against Congressman Hill of Maryland who insisted that he had a right under the law to make elder or other fruit juices and grape wine for home consumption. In this contention, he has been sustained by the court and the idea that "a man's home is his castle" still stands. But it is not to be assumed that this lessens in any degree the force of the law as applied to the sale of such beverages.

TREATING WITH PERSIA

Sometimes out of a national loss comes permanent good. When Vice Consul Imbrie was cruelly murdered by Persian fanatics this nation mourned his loss with mingled feelings of sorrow and indignation. Persia, however, has tried to make amends as best he could by executing the guilty and offering payment of $150,000 indemnity

A Thought

Natures that have much heat, and great violent desires and perturbations are not ripe for action till they have passed the meridian of their years.—Bacon.

The Poor Man

Bessie, in town with her mother, caught sight of a bald-headed man. "O, mother," she exclaimed, "just see that man! He has a hair on his head, hasn't he?" "Flash!" replied her mother. "He will tear you." "O," said Bessie, in subdued tones, "Doesn't he know it?"

Piling It On

It was Friday night and he had just received notice of a reduction in his wages. He walked homeward mournfully, and when 10 yards from his door slipped on some orange peel. His head came to rest on some paper lying on the pavement. He looked at the paper in a dazed sort of way, and saw that it was a book cover with the title, "You Never Know Your Luck."

Doxton's Pennants

On being offered a Boston joke the editor of a humorous weekly proceeded to take the alleged humorist to task in no uncertain manner. "I don't see any point to these whims about the light-colored pennants of Boston," declared the editor. "They're out of date, to say the least. Boston has won her share of pennants and was once the home of John L. Sullivan."

Went Lunacy Again

This is the latest mark story. After 13 years' confinement a lunatic was released from a Berlin asylum. Having a taxi, he asked to be driven to the station, where he paid his fare with a 20-mark gold piece he had secured all the 13 years. To his surprise the taxi driver gave him change—four thousand billion marks or so. The ex-lunatic counted the money and gasped: "Drive me back to the asylum!"

"Our Boarding House"

Unless Gene Abern's hunch is a flat tire, the great mass of American people got a real kick out of slang expressions. "There's no dern much punch to em. Folks kinder got tired of everyday lingo and they turn to slang for relief. And that's why Abern is using slang—original slang—in his famous comic, "Our Boarding House." The popularity of this strip is proof that the hunch isn't a flat tire. Readers are the only ones who come up for the latest laugh by keeping abreast of the comic. You'll have a great time in Abern's "Boarding House." Follow the crowd in "The Sun."

Good Race, Anyway

"Talkin' about runnin'," said the seedy man, "about the finest bit o' sprintin' I ever saw was in the country year before last. I'd been out all day rabbit shootin', and had the most awful luck, when a spotted rabbit came out of a bush about 200 yards away. 'Takin' a careful sight, I let fly. But the instant my bullet touched him, and before it had time to penetrate his skin, that hare was off like a flash. I never saw such two evenly matched things as that hare and my bullet. For over half a mile they sped on together, neither gainin' on the other, the bullet just keepin' to keep in touch with the hare's skin. At the end of a mile, however, the pace began to tell on the hare and he faltered for a moment. 'Twas fatal. The bullet sped on and the poor beast was bowled over. He deserved his freedom if ever an animal did. He'd have got it, too, if he could have stuck out another 20 yards, for that's about as far as my rifle carries."

I'll Think of Thee

I'll think of thee, at that soft hour,
When fade the parting hues of day,
And o'er each grove, and woodland bow,
The balmy gales of summer play.
When night around her mantle throws,
And stars illumine the deep blue sea—
When woe and Nature seems repose, Oh then—I'll dream—I'll dream of thee.

When from the east Aurora breaks,
And night's dark shadows glide away;
When Nature from her slumber wakes,
To hail with joy the opening day.

When sweetly bursting on mine ear,
The tuneful warbler's note of glee,
I'll fondly fancy, thou art near,
To touch the strings of my guitar.

—FRANCES JANE CROSBY.

GIRL SCOUTS HOLD SUCCESSFUL BAZAAR

Greater Lowell council, Girl Scouts of America, held a highly successful bazaar and winter party yesterday at the Hotel Colonial and Middlesex Halls, with the end in view to secure funds for the council for the continuance of scout activities in general. The bazaar was held in Middlesex hall, attractively decorated in pine boughs, while whist was played in Colonial hall. Refreshments were served and several sales tables did a satisfactory business. Many of the girls donated food, dainties, candies and other things placed on sale.

The affair was in general charge of Miss Marion Hill, Girl Scout commissioner, assisted by the following council members: Mrs. Otis Humphrey, Miss Elizabeth Wallerson, Mrs. Herbert Fletcher, Mrs. Harry Kershaw, Mrs. Chester Queen, Mrs. Walter Dutton, Mrs. Herbert Larrabee, Mrs. Paul Dutton, Miss Winifred Nelson, Mrs. David Dewar, Mrs. Harry Prescott Grimes, Mrs. Charles Cooke and Mrs. Buzen.

The tables and whist were in charge of the following:
Christmas greens—Capt. Lillian H. Hill, Troop 3; Mrs. Herbert Fletcher and Mrs. Otis Humphrey.

Flowers and glasses—Mrs. Paul Dutton and Capt. Esther Woodward of Troop 1, Chelmsford.

Candy tables—Mrs. Elizabeth Patterson, Capt. Irene Kershaw of Troop 8.

Food table—Mrs. Herbert Larrabee, Mrs. David Dewar, Mrs. Chester Queen, Mrs. Charles Cooke and Mrs. Walter Dutton.

Bridge tables and refreshments—Mrs. Hammond Barnes and Miss Mary Reilly.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

"Middlesex County Bulletin" arrives on time as usual, and it's the November issue, of course, covering all departments in the usual way, clearly, fully and interesting always in reporting the doings of the county agriculturalists, the workers in home economics and excellent accounts of all-gout delves of the boys and girls who belong regularly to the young folks' club associations. "The Bulletin" discusses the fruit market situation, dwelling upon the heavy apple crop in the fall of the year. It avers that this season's crop as a whole was not up to expectations. Many farmers are marketing "poor quality." Unusually this sort of fruit has injured the price for all other grades, even the best. The county bureau agents are planning to conduct an extensive campaign urging farmers to do better apple tree spraying in the spring of the year. They claim many Middlesex apple orchards badly need it today.

In the press room at city hall during the recent state and city primaries and elections many persons gathered. Among the more familiar figures who are habitual, but welcome visitors, are Michael Dowd, assistant to Probation Officer Joseph Cronin, and D. Murray Cummings, principal of the Lincoln school, and son of Lawrence Cummings, veteran newspaper man. For the past several weeks, this duo has attended the tabulation of ballots and generally they have stuck to the end. That last phrase is saying a whole lot, when one recalls that the state returns were not completed until nearly four o'clock the following day, and the city primaries kept the boys on the job until 6 a. m. yesterday morning.

Assisting members included Mrs. Garfield Davis, Mrs. Raymond C. Hazeltine and Mrs. Frank E. McMaster. Percy W. Kimball and E. McLaughlin assisted in decorating the hall. The proceeds of the entertainment will be used to pay for the luncheon served to the grade school pupils.

A. F. OF L. HEADS CONSIDER POLITICAL POLICY

EL PASO, Texas, Nov. 13.—(By the Associated Press)—Chiefs of the American Federation of Labor turned today to consideration of political policy. The meeting was one of a series intended to evolve for submission to the convention a special report touching upon relationships between the federation and any new party movement which may grow out of the presidential campaign just concluded.

President Samuel Gompers presided at the initial session. Lessons for labor from the presidential campaign were planned to form a large part of the final report of the meetings. The report probably will be presented next Tuesday. The program for Monday, the opening day, is filled with inaugural formalities and the president's annual message.

President Gompers, 74, and in high fettle for the 44th annual convention of the federation, arrived yesterday with hundreds of state and local leaders from all sections of the east and north. He views the forthcoming gathering as one of the most important in the history of the organization. Departmental meetings carried over into today's pre-convention program several questions which may reach the convention floor. Foremost among them was the action of the building trades department yesterday in formally demanding suspension from the American Federation of Labor of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, with a membership throughout the country of some 350,000. Peace moves calculated to dispose of the matter amicably continued today after a night of soundings described as "not so very encouraging."

TO DISCUSS FUTURE GOVERNMENT OF CHINA

CANTON, Nov. 13.—At the request of the North China League, Dr. Sun Yat Sen, president of the provisional government of South China, will leave tomorrow to take part in the conference at Tientsin to discuss the future government of China.

Sen will be accompanied by 32 advisers. He will sail on the Japanese liner Shinyo Maru, accommodations having been provided through the Japanese consul.

Arrangements for Sen's attendance were received from Tuan Chi-jai, former premier; Chang Tso-lin, the Manchurian chief; Peng Hsi-shang, the present military head of the Peking government, and many other leaders. The situation in Canton is quiet.

TO ORGANIZE NATIONAL WOOL EXCHANGE

HELENA, Mont., Nov. 13.—Organization of the National Wool Exchange, composed of western wool growers and live stock bankers to provide for orderly marketing of the wool from all sections of the country, was planned here yesterday. Western headquarters will be in Helena with sales office and warehouses in Boston. The exchange will be organized under the laws of Delaware, with a capitalization of $200,000. The new organization will be a reorganization of and successor to the National Wool Warehouse and Storage company, which is being liquidated.

SUIT AGAINST THE PAN-AMERICAN COMPANY

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 13.—Owen J. Roberts, special prosecutor appointed by President Coolidge, had the privilege of opening arguments today in the government's suit against the Pan-American Petroleum and Transport Company. Presentation of testimony in the naval oil reserve lease cancellation case was completed yesterday.

After Roberts' argument, Frank J. Hogan, Walter K. Tuller and a clerk, Mr. Kellgren, intended to argue for the defense, while former Senator Alton Pomeroy planned to close for the government.

Appetizing

What is so good as the odor of food when the suppertime hour rolls around? Our appetite's hooked when the grub's being cooked. Yea, it rises and cannot be downed.

Men come home at night and their ambition light is dimmed through the work of the day. The ginger and pop's fallen way out of step and the laziness feeling's at play.

But, then comes the break, and it may be a steak or some pork chops that reinstate men. The odor will rise and you soon realize that you're pepped up all over again.

The good wife is cooking and hubby stands looking, just taking the flavored air in. Some meat's in broiling, potatoes are boiling. The stove works with vigor and vim.

Ah, then is the time when your system's in rhyme, for a home-prepared meal is a treat. And no matter how fagged, or how weary and dragged, Mister Hubby shouts, "When do we eat?"

POLICE MYSTIFIED BY FOREST FIRES BURNED LOS ANGELES MURDER OVER 21,000 ACRES

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Nov. 13.—The police today admitted they were mystified by the murder Monday night of Harry I. Katz, musician, real estate operator and diamond broker.

Chase Carroll, barber and husband of a woman friend of Katz, the second man detained for questioning, was released early today after he had established an alibi.

The other man questioned and released was Hal Hall, Santa Monica real estate broker, who met Katz less than ten minutes before the shooting. He was instructed to report at central police station again today, as was Carroll.

The trail of diamonds which investigators believe yet may solve the slaying of Katz, who seemed to have carried on all his affairs in terms of precious stones, grew more definite yesterday with the discovery of four valuable diamonds pledged by Katz to a Los Angeles pawn shop, but two safe deposit boxes expected to yield missing gems revealed unimportant papers.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—The American Railway Express company is ready to use airplanes for the transportation of freight, if a dependable service is offered it, Robert H. M. Cowie, president of the company, at a gathering of airplane manufacturers and pilots here last night.

The company will grant an exclusive contract for the carrying of its packages to any aerial transportation firm which can show a dependable and efficient service," he said.

Advocating the establishment of a new air department by the government, Mr. Cowie urged the active participation by the government in subsidizing large commercial transportation companies.

HITCH IN NEGOTIATIONS FOR COMMERCIAL TREATY

PARIS, Nov. 12.—(By the Associated Press)—The negotiations for a Franco-German commercial treaty have encountered a serious hitch which, according to newspaper reports, is due to the efforts of the German delegates to obtain modifications of the accord reached in London last summer for putting the Daves plan into effect in exchange for the commercial advantages France is seeking. It is understood Premier Herriot flatly refused to consent to mix up the commercial negotiations with the reparations question.

The Germans are represented as wanting, first of all, the abolition of the 25 per cent reparations recovery tax and in addition certain modifications of the Daves plan as applied under the London agreement. Premier Herriot reminded Dr. von Hoesch, the German ambassador, that the German delegates in London had promised compensation for the voluntary offer of the French to hasten the military evacuation of parts of the occupied territory.

Case Given to Jury

ter A. W. Billburg and George Holsapple, under sentence for the killing, and affidavits in court, charging the killing of Loney and the others with intent to murder. They were released on bail of $10,000 each and their preliminary hearing set for Monday.

The affidavits charged that the four, Loney and city officials, promised Billburg and Holsapple immunity for their part in the attack upon the Loney, who were set upon by a gang in a pistol fight.

The affidavits said, was the climax of a series of meetings of those in the gang, the sworn statements which planned to drive the elder Loney from the city.

The accused had decided the authorities were lax and that no prosecution of Loney could be hoped for from those in power, since no action concerning the deaths of several men in gang fights in which Loney was involved was taken, the affidavits said.

Billburg, Holsapple, George Buckley and Dan Drost were found guilty of the killing and sentenced to prison. Applications for new trials recently were denied by the state supreme court.

Probe Fatal P. O. Explosion

cumbered after having both legs blown off and Ernest A. Roth, a truck driver, died three hours after the blast. The splinter was driven into Roth's body by the force of the explosion. Dale Newhouse, 19, died in a hospital today. The theory that the blast was caused by the premature explosion of a bomb which had been sent through the mails, was advanced by postal authorities and police and firemen, who worked all night by aid of searchlights, scouring wreckage for clues. No fragment of a bomb or other explosive was found, however.

TO THE VOTERS

This is to tell you of my appreciation for the splendid endorsement of my candidacy which your votes indicated in the Tuesday primary. My clean primary campaign, I hope, may be a suggestion to you of the manner in which I intend to conduct myself in this important office if you will continue your support of me.

Signed, L. EDGAR LAMBERT,

WELL KNOWN BOXER
JOINS THE NAVY

Joseph Victor Hivet, 50 Race street, enlisted in the navy as apprentice seaman and was sent to the Newport, R. I. station for training, this morning. Hivet is a well known light heavy-weight boxer and has been fighting throughout New England and Canada for the past five years. He was given a letter of recommendation to the athletic officer at the training station as he expressed a desire to follow up boxing while in the service.

Charles Henry Hebert, 33 Austin street re-enlisted in the navy as a seaman second class and after 20 days re-enlistment leave, will be sent to the receiving ship at Boston for duty.

TO HOLD PARTY AT GIRLS' CITY CLUB

In order to accommodate the many couples who attend the Pollard-O club socials and weekly dancing parties, the Green Lantern plans have been made to hold all future parties at the Girls' City club rooms in the square. Tomorrow evening will find the club and its friends in its new hall, and as a special feature a ladies' night will be held. An enjoyable evening is assured all who attend and the committee in charge has arranged an extensive program for the first of a series of dances to be held at the Girls' City club rooms in the square.

er known as Jimmy Wells, in whose garage was found a blue sedan answering the description of that in which the slayers fled from O'Banion's flower shop after the killing.

Police state correspondents with that which witnesses said the slayers' automobile carried.

"I expect we shall satisfy ourselves to a moral certainty as to the identity of the killers," said Michael Hughes, chief of detectives, "but nothing will come of it. There will be no prosecution. It's the same old story. We'll never be able to get anybody to identify them if we do get them."

O'Banion's friends, professing ignorance of the identity of the slayers, also are investigating. Louis Altorio, the slayer leader's lieutenant upon whom O'Banion's mantle is reported to have fallen, told reporters:

"If I can make an appointment with the killers I will shoot it out with them," he said.

He attributed the killing to jealousy of O'Banion's growing power in the underworld and politically.

The funeral of the slain gang leader will be held tomorrow.

Shot in Gang Fight

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—William Shields was shot, and probably fatally wounded today on the South Side in what the police described as a gang fight, which is being investigated particularly for any connection with the slaying of Dion O'Banion. Joseph Carville, known as a gangster, is being sought. He, according to the police, once was acquitted of a murder charge.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. George Hatch of Washington, D. C., and Miss Mary Butcher of Bradford, N. H., were married last evening at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. William Butcher in Wiggin street by Rev. Louis E. Shields of the First Presbyterian church. Mrs. William Butcher was matron of honor while Mr. William Butcher, Jr., was best man. The bride wore a gown of gray satin and carried American beauty roses. The matron of honor wore blue satin and carried Ophelia roses. Mrs. Rudolph Johnson played the wedding march. Following the ceremony a reception was held at which a large number of guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Hatch left on an extended wedding trip to Canada and upon their return they will make their home in Springfield.

Menus for a Family
Tested by SISTER MARY

Breakfast—Grapefruit, scrambled eggs with rice, toasted bran muffins, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Baked cheese, cabbage salad, bread and butter, filled cookies, milk, tea.

Dinner—Tomato bouillon, creamed chicken on toast, twice baked potatoes, creamed onions, orange salad, sponge cake, milk, coffee.

There are always bits of chicken left after a chicken dinner. The neck, backbone and wings yield delicious tid-bits, but are seldom popular on the table. Pick the meat carefully from the bones, removing skin and gristle and simply reheat it in the cream sauce. Too much cooking makes chicken stringy and tasteless.

Baked Cheese

Two cups stale bread crumbs from the soft part of the loaf, 1 egg, 2 cups milk, 1 cup finely chopped cheese, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, dash mustard.

Heat milk to the scolding point and pour over bread crumbs. Let stand half an hour. Beat egg slightly. Add egg, cheese and seasoning to bread and milk and beat well. Turn into a buttered baking dish and bake in a moderate oven until firm to the touch. It will take about half an hour.

This is a nourishing economical luncheon dish for the entire family.

Filled Cookies

One cup granulated sugar, 1 cup brown sugar, 1 cup butter and lard combined, 5 cups flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg, 2 eggs, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 tablespoon sour milk, 2 teaspoons vanilla.

Milling: One cup chopped and seeded raisins, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 cup water, 1 teaspoon cornstarch, 1 teaspoon vanilla, few gelatin cubes.

To make cookies, mix sugar, flour, salt, baking powder and nutmeg. Rub in shortening. Beat eggs until light and add soda dissolved in sour milk. Add this to first mixture with vanilla.

If the dough is dry and crumbly work in a very little more milk. If the eggs are good sized more milk is unnecessary but very small eggs require additional liquid. Put one-fourth the mixture on a floured molding board and roll very thin. Cut with a round cookie cutter. Put a teaspoonful of the filling in center of half the cookies and press edges together. Gather trimmings and add to remaining dough. Roll and cut. Bake in a hot oven.

To make filling, mix sugar and cornstarch. Put raisins and water in sauce pan and bring to the boiling point. Stir in sugar and cornstarch, add nutmeg and cook until thick. Remove from the fire and let cool slightly before adding vanilla.

Orange Salad

Three large oranges, 1/4 cup finely chopped nuts, 1/4 cup chopped dates, tiny pinch of salt, lettuce, French dressing.

Peel oranges and separate into sections. Remove skin from each section. Allow one-half orange for each serving. Arrange sections on lettuce, sprinkle with dates and nuts and a very little salt. Pour over French dressing and serve. Chill the lettuce and oranges before mixing the salad.

Nation-wide Jewel
Conspiracy Uncovered

"Kid" McCoy is charged, served, insofar as the conspiracy is concerned, it is said, merely to provide the first details lead into the smuggling maze, some of her jewelry having been identified after the crime as part of the loot imports. A similar lead was opened in Los Angeles Monday with the killing of Harry I. Katz, and officials estimate that "several hundred" persons scattered widely throughout the country have come innocently into possession of the smuggled gems, about half of which they think, never will be identified.

Although much work remains for the customs agents in searching out further details of the conspiracy, their access thus far has been such that the treasury felt justified in making public part of the story as reported by service officials in New York. The smugglers are said to have maintained their headquarters in New York, but Pacific coast centers, especially Los Angeles and San Francisco appear to have provided their principal markets, judging from the amounts recovered there. Most of the jewelry, the agents reported, was purchased by the smugglers in Austria and Germany with the depreciated currency of those nations, after some of it had found its way out of Russia.

Wants Position Here as

is in receipt of a letter from Henry St. Onge, 235 Mt. Hope street, in which the latter applies for the position of finger-print expert, states his experience and qualifications and stipulates a salary of $125 per week. Mr. St. Onge states he is a graduate of the U.S.S. of finger-prints of Chicago and is an acknowledged expert. The position of his letter which says that he understands Lowell is one of the few big cities of the country whose police department does not have a finger-print branch in operation is the basis of the interesting facts concerning the local operation of such a system.

It was about 25 years ago that William B. Moffat, then police superintendent, went to the St. Louis world fair and spent an entire week in consultation with a Scotland yard representative in a study of the finger-print system then in vogue in England and for years prior to that time in London.

On his return to Lowell Sup. Moffat explained the system to his officers and at once the system was put into effect. For 25 years it has been operated most successfully by Deputy Supt. Downey and Sergt. McClougher and thousands of finger-print specimens are indexed and filed at police headquarters.

All these facts are told Mr. St. Onge by the deputy superintendent in a reply to his letter and in which it also is pointed out that all appointments to the Lowell department are subject to civil service regulations.

In connection with the length of time a finger-print system has been in operation here, Lowell is prominently mentioned as one of the country's pioneer cities in a book written by E. R. Henry, former police commissioner, and first published in 1900.

tives and friends in attendance at the service and there were several city and state officials, while in the sanctuary were seated the following local and visiting priests: Rev. Owen P. McQuaid, O.M.I., of the Immaculate Conception church; Rev. Robert J. McCoy, O.M.I., of Tewksbury; Rev. J. N. Cunningham of Haverhill; Rev. Charles J. Galligan of St. Margaret's; Rev. David J. Murphy of Dorchester; Rev. Joseph A. Curran of St. Patrick's; Rev. Joseph T. Grillo of St. Anthony's; Rev. W. A. Robbins, O.M.I., of the Immaculate Conception; Rev. Dennis J. Murphy of Cambridge; Rev. Dennis J. O'Brien of the Sacred Heart; Rev. A. F. O'Brien of St. Margaret's; Rev. Thomas J. Henegany of St. Michael's; Rev. James P. Lynch of St. Michael's; Rev. Daniel J. Hafferman of St. Mary's; Collinsville, and Rev. A. L. McDermott, O.M.I., of the Sacred Heart.

The funeral cortege arrived at the church at 10 o'clock. So profuse was the contribution of floral tributes that three large baronches were required to convey them to the cemetery.

The solemn high funeral mass was celebrated by Rev. John J. O'Hearn Hamilton, Mass., while the deacon was Rev. Charles L. Sullivan, S.T.L., of St. Andrew's church, North Hitterdon, and the sub-deacon was Rev. John J. McGarry, D.C.L., of St. Patrick's, this city.

During the services, an augmented choir rendered the Gregorian mass. Mrs. Hugh Walker was at the organ. The soloists were sustained as follows: At the Gloria, William L. Gookin rendered the "Gloria"; after the Elevation, Andrew A. McCarthy sang "O Meritum Pissoni"; at the Libera, the solo was sustained by James S. King, and at the conclusion of the service, Thomas P. Boulger sang the "De Profundis."

The buriers were Stephen Kearney, Dr. Matthew Mahoney, Alexander H. Mitchell, John J. Hanlon, Frederick E. Meley, Frank P. McGilley, William P. O'Leary and Dr. John J. Walsh. The ushers at the house and church were: Daniel E. McQuade, Thomas F. Kelly, Joseph A. Lekan and William C. Purcell.

At the grave in St. Patrick's cemetery, the committal prayers were read by Rev. Fr. O'Hearn and assisting clergymen. The funeral arrangements were in charge of William C. Purcell under the direction of Undertakers Charles H. Molloy's Sons.

cabinet at the next meeting, probably early next week.

Man in Hiding

WARSAW, Nov. 12.—The Lwowska Gazeta, a Lemberg newspaper, usually well-informed on Russian affairs, says the alleged Zinovieff letter was divulged by the chief of an important secret section of the Moscow foreign office which directed propaganda in the British dominions.

This official, the paper says, left Moscow suddenly about the middle of October, taking with him the famous letter and other secret documents concerning Bolshevik propaganda in the British empire.

His departure spread consternation

among the soviet authorities and attempts were made to catch him at Berlin. He took an airplane to London, where other agents of the soviet tried to seize him upon landing, but he again evaded them and handed the Zinovieff letter and other papers of the conspirators, who, the account says, intend to use the letter in forthcoming debates in the house of commons on Anglo-soviet relations.

The newspaper adds that the man who took the documents to London is being kept hidden by the conspirators for fear of an attack upon him by the Bolsheviks.

TUFF, VOLSTEADProhibition Act, Opinion of Judge Test CaseJuices May Be for Home Regard-Alcoholic ContentWHITE FALLS, Minn., Nov. 13.—
The opinion of Judge Morris A. Solomon, that fruit juices may be regarded as home consumption of the alcoholic content, is that, Andrew J. Volstead, father of the prohibition act, declared today.
He held the same opinion in New York some time ago, according to Mr. Volstead.You can't administer prohibition enforcement by trying to interpret that alcoholic content makes a beverage intoxicating. Volstead said.
It was not the intention of the act to prohibit home-making and consumption of fruit juice that will not become wine. A fruit juice will not develop any alcoholic content without the use of sugar. Some persons would be intoxicated on a small percentage of alcohol content while others can consume large quantities of high concentrated alcohol without exhibiting signs of intoxication.I do not feel that the ruling, of Judge Solomon, will have any effect on prohibition enforcement.Menus for a Family

Island Passes AwayPAWTUCKET, R. I., Nov. 13.—Rev.
Louis J. Deady, 72, pastor of the church of the Sacred Heart and dean of English-speaking clergymen in this state, died today. He has been a Catholic priest for 47 years. Rev.
Father Deady organized St. Louis parish in Fall River.BY THE N.E.A. BOOK SURVEY D. H. Lawrence, the distinguished Englishman who adopted "Tos, N. M., has stepped out of his role as psychoanalyst to write a really distinguished novel in which the complex clinics play second fiddle.It is "The Boy in the Bush" (Setting) in which Lawrence collaborates with M. T. Skinner and it is a far departure from the Lawrence of "The Lost Girl," "The Sea and Sardinia," and "The Rainbow." It is the same Lawrence who wrote "Sons and Lovers," but become more assured and settled.The book has all the elements of a good story, including the elements of sex, fighting, love, lust, etc., and yet because of the incessant moving from the objective story to a subjective one, it escapes being the commonplace adventure tale or a mere piece of literary job work.Briefly the situation is this: An English boy of "wild" tendencies is sent by his father to an Australian cattle station where he becomes part of a pioneer Australian family and shares the primitive wild life. Conquest of rough virgin country leads to steady communal life and then the inevitable restrictions upon individual freedom. In this device is rounded the cycle of most race development.This is not a book for the sentimental or unsophisticated reader. The passions become as primitive as the country and its background, and there are elemental scenes and events given in all their blunt and primal dress.In drawing the Ellis family and "the boy" Lawrence has done a distinguished piece of writing.This survey places the volume at the top of the Lawrence list.The habits of the "mollusker" and the "bunko stealer" alike are intimately pictured in "Keys to Crookdom" (Appleton), by George C. Henderson, probably one of the most elaborate and complete volumes on crooks to be found in the library of an ordinary crookologist in that here each type of criminal is shown in action and actual scenes from life are fitted into the chapters.Henderson, for some years a reporter in Oakland, Cal., has had the aid of August Vollmer, famous "scientific chief of police" and his credit has been contributed by a dozen police authorities. It is absolutely authoritative and besides its value to writers, policemen, newspapermen and criminologists, presents to the layman a clear picture of the types of crook and the habits. There is, in an appendix, a dictionary of crook slang which is quite the most complete this survey has ever seen.Quite a different volume of the "crime school" is the maiden volume of Richard E. Enright, New York's commissioner of police, and a noted crime expert. It is "Cultures of the Criminal" (Appleton) and is an authentic mystery story dealing with the running down of a great crime organization preying upon fashionable New Yorkers. It is a real thriller.Still another type of crime tale is contained in "Donkey" (Doubleday Page), written by Major C. E. Russell, who was provost marshal at Bordeaux during the war and who tells real life thrillers from the chapters of the department of criminal investigation."Why, or why doesn't someone write 'The Chatterbox'?" demands one surveyor in running over the new children's books—this being children's book week. The nearest approach is a second edition of "Joy Street" (D.
Appleton), a fine collection from such excellent writers as Walter de la Mare, A. A. Milne, G. K. Chesterton and Hugh Walpole. The illustrations are varied and many quite good. This should be a popular Christmas book.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Girls, if you want romance and adventure, come to New York and become a policewoman.
The other night every policewoman on the force was assigned to help in a raid of bootleg joints in the Times square district.These women were garbed in magnificent evening gowns. They entered cafes on the arms of gallant men in formal black and white. They sat at tables and smiled graciously at head-waiters. And hand-waiters beckoned under-servers and wine was poured except when their necks and girreries and such things were served.And then these ladies and their escorts arose and arrested the head-waiters and the under-waiters and marched them out to waiting patrol wagons.It takes a crook to catch a crook, they say, but along Broadway the police are taking a girl to catch a bootlegger. Several dozens of prohibition violators were arrested by the lady sleuths.Here is a new field for women that promises more excitement than the movies ever offered.The most desolate place in all New York is Times square at 8 o'clock Sunday morning.A stray taxi. Sore-footed waiters stumbling along to the subway. Garbage cans in front of glazed show windows reeking with odors.
News vendors arranging their morning papers. . . .A solitary drunk or dope fiend adding his nauseating bill to the sickening picture. . . .Gone are the lights, the shouts and murmurs, the laughter, the gold-diggers, the high-hats, the flick pots, the gaudy, lustful, searching throng. . . .Only dark communities remain. . . . People who labor on Sunday. . . .

Epidemic Breaks Out,
IN CONCORD, VT.CONCORD, Vt., Nov. 13.—This village is faced with an epidemic of scarlet fever and both of its physicians are unable to care for the sick folk.
Dr. B. G. French is in Brightland hospital at St. Johnsbury in a critical condition and Dr. R. T. Johnson is incapacitated from professional work by the infirmities of age.Fred S. Harriman of St. Johnsbury, health officer, is handling the situation, assisting some of the St. Johnsbury physicians. At the present time the epidemic is confined to three families in this village, one in South Kirby and two in St. Johnsbury families.FIRST BREAK IN SPIRIT ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Nov. 13.—The first break in the longshoremen's strike which has taken the last week has been in this port, came today when the sanitary men who belong to the Longshoremen's union returned to work. The truckmen have reaffirmed their intention of standing by the striking longshoremen.Election Board Starts Re-count Continueddiscrepancies were found, not amounting to more than a change of two votes with but two exceptions. One block, about the tenth counted, gave Mr.
O'Neill a gain of 20 votes and in the next block counted Mr. Lewis lost eight votes.When this precinct was completed, it was found that Mr. O'Neill had gained 13 while Mr. Lewis had lost 6 votes, making a total gain of 19 votes for the former.The second precinct of the same ward was next taken and with only a few more blocks to count at 1 o'clock this afternoon, Mr. Lewis was credited with a gain of three while Mr. O'Neill lost two votes, making a total gain for Mr. Lewis of five votes in this precinct.A recess was declared shortly after 1 o'clock by Chairman Hugh McKasker of the election commission for lunching, the recount to get under way again at 2 o'clock and continued until late this afternoon.TO FIGHT APPOINTMENT OF BUTLER AS SENATORBOSTON, Nov. 13.—Chairman Charles H. McGue of the Democratic State committee announced that he would file with the legislature today a bill, the effect of which would be to limit the March 4 or until an election can be held, the term of William M. Butler, as United States senator in succession to Henry Cabot Lodge. The matter may also be carried to the United States supreme court, Mr. McGue said.The democratic chairman said "we have no objection to temporary appointment of Mr. Butler, but we do believe that an appointment that will cover the short session of congress, the long session of the next two years, and such special sessions as may be called, passes the bounds of the "temporary" provisions of the constitution. We will fight it out in the legislature and we may go to the United States supreme court on the question of the validity of the law."Governor Cox had been asked shortly after his announcement of Mr. Butler's appointment whether there was any question of the constitutionality of the law. He said he knew of none, and that he was acting under the provision of the law which stipulated that the governor should make appointment to fill the vacancy if it occurred not less than 60 days prior to the date of the primaries, for nominating candidates to be voted for at the election.The chairman McGue asserted that the provision of the Massachusetts law under which Governor Cox named Mr.
Butler to act until the next general election in 1926 was in conflict with the federal constitutional amendment for the direct election of United States senators. It is his contention that a special election should be called forthwith under the federal provision that appointments to the senate may be made only for "temporary periods."The legislature which meets in January, will be asked to repeal the act of two years ago an unconstitutional, Mr. McGue said he would press the legislature for immediate action, asserting that "the republicans rushed through the act of two years ago in five weeks and can do the same again."CHARGED WITH RAISING P. O. MONEY ORDERPROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 13.—Adel-Frankel, 26, of Brooklyn, was given a suspended sentence when arraigned in court here today on a charge of raising a postoffice money order from $1 to $100. Her companion, Samuel Zevin of the same city was sentenced to two years in prison on a similar charge.
The couple were arrested here in a hotel on complaint of Zevin's wife.LITTLE JOE

MARKETNEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Stock prices again surged upward today as trading was resumed at a more moderate pace. Yesterday's realizing movement appeared to have spent itself except in a few scattered issues, including United States Steel and operations for the rise proceeded with renewed vigor in a variety of rail, oil and specialty shares, adding several issues to new high records for the year. United States Cast Iron Pipe, however, fell back two points.Industrial shares continued to extend their early gains as railroad issues to a large extent were relegated to the background. Advances were not as unseasonal as in previous sessions, but the steady flow of buying orders was reflected in the establishment of new high prices for many issues. Net gains of one to two points in the first half hour. These embraced such diversified issues as Mack Truck, American Sugar, United States Rubber common and first preferred, General Electric, United States Alcohol, Central Leather common and preferred and Sears Roebuck. United States Steel rallied from its early low. Atchafalaya
Southern Pacific and New York Central common trifle higher, but Union Pacific was heavy. Losses of one point were recorded by Frisco, American Tobacco "B" and American Smelting. Foreign exchanges opened firm.With heavy liquidation of professional shares, especially lawyers, gathering strength during the morning with impressive bullish demonstrations taking place in the industrial group. American Cast Iron Pipe, United States Pipe established record highs for all time at 152 1/2 and 140 1/2, respectively, while United States Steel common was within a small fraction of the year's top. Over 100 issues advanced, and specialties advanced 2 to 5 points. Before noon, including General Electric,
Mack Truck, White Motors, Sears Roebuck,
DuPont, American Sugar, Marine preferred and General Leather preferred. Several strong spots also developed among the rails. Katy preferred jumping 3 1/2 points to 86 1/2, a new top; Lackawanna climbing 3 1/2 and Atlantic Coast Line 2 1/2. Sales in the first hour and a half totaled approximately 165,000. Call money again renewed at 2 per cent.Selected stocks were whirled to new high prices under the impetus of the strong bullish movement. American Can and United States Cast Iron Pipe, American Can lunched 15 1/2, a rise of 1 1/2, and United States Cast Iron Pipe was up 3 1/2. American Ice, Kinney,
Mack Truck, White Motors, Sears Roebuck,
DuPont, American Sugar, Marine
preferred and General Leather preferred made material advances.
United States Cast Iron Pipe later reacted 6 points.NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Foreign ex-which stated that during the peace conference at Versailles, Premier Clemenceau of France "accused Lloyd George so fully of repeated inaccuracy of statements that Lloyd George sawed him by the collar and demanded an apology, and after President Wilson had separated them, Clemenceau offered Lloyd George reparation with pistols or swords."100 ACRE FOREST FIRE port of 100 acre forest fire in Mad-stone came yesterday afternoon by telephone to the office of the state forest service from W. L. Kingsley who said he discovered it and put a force of men at work. The fire succeeded in checking the flames before they reached far into the woods.Women Guests of Gas Light Companythanks to Mr. Edward J. Cooney, and the company.

John L. Eigenbrodt, superintendent of the plant was then introduced by Mr.
Cooney and in an interesting educational informal talk told of the process of destructive distillation used in the manufacture of gas. Mr. Eigenbrodt said in part:Combustion, or certain chemical activity in nature, is a process in which it may be secured through the contact of oxygen and iron; oxygen and carbon; oil, carbon and hydrogen and other impurities, and other methods. In speaking of gas we speak of oxidation, or in other words the combustion of materials with oxygen.When you apply a lighted match to the candle wick some time elapses before the wick is ignited. But, the gas jet when opened lights immediately.
The difference in the physical condition of the material which, contains the oxygen, the carbon and hydrogen in gas, in a gaseous state immediately ignites when it comes in contact with oxygen, plus the heat of the match. Carbon and oxygen will combine providing no other material interferes.A solid material such as coal is combustible. You have perhaps noticed the rust on old iron. That is caused by the contact of the iron with the oxygen, and a slow, indirect combustion is the result.If a solid mass of gas we put the coal in a heated chamber, exclude all oxygen and thereby prevent the coal from burning. We change the solid matter in a gaseous state. In this process of destructive distillation, the things are prepared together with gas.Coal is one of the products of this process. In this process some carbon and hydrogen are left in the coal and it is from this that the coal which it takes one and one-half tons of coal to make one ton of coke. It is not made from left-over as the impression is largely circulated. The quality of this coke must be merchantable and suitable for use. We must answer to the Massachusetts commission for the quality of our products.Water gas is also manufactured and this is made by disassociating the steam from the hot coke. In this process an amount of carbon monoxide, a combustible gas, is produced

Jack Daw's Adventures. Chapter 2

"Through another forest and then on to another plain and Jack and the bear hunter were back in the open space where they had watched the aviator sail away. 'He's not back yet,' said Jack. 'No,' replied the hunter, 'but he's coming now.' And up in the sky Jack saw the airplane.

"Oh, I guess I'd rather have my feet safe on the ground," laughed the hunter. And with that he and Jack both got off their horses. Then the plane took a long, sweeping glide and, with the engine shut off, coasted to the ground and landed right near where Jack stood. (Continued.)

"HELP, HELP!" CRIED THE COOK'S VOICE JUST THEN, AS HE RUSHED OUT OF HIS KITCHEN WAVING HIS ARMS WILDLY.

When Mrs. Goose grabbed the magic dust-pan from the peddler in the yard of the palace of the King of Yum Yum Land, she flew up to the tower where the white crow was waiting. "I've got it!" she cried delightedly. "I've saved Daddy Gander's dust-pan for him. It's a good thing we came when we did."

"There goes Daddy Gander now," said the crow nudging Mrs. Goose with his wing.

"They could hear Daddy's voice saying, 'Well, good-bye, King. That was a fine dinner we had. But I'll just put in a good word for home folks. The dinner your cook prepared with the magic fork was good, but Mrs. John's home-made bread was better.'"

"That was the best bread I," said the king.

"Help! Help!" cried the cook's voice just then, as he rushed out of his kitchen waving his arms wildly. "The magic fork is gone! Someone stole it."

TO CLARIFY SITUATION

H. M. Sein Said Youth Would Refuse to Right—Statement Issued

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 13.—The resolutions committee of the Peace Congress of The American Council of the World Alliance for International Friendship through the churches was today considering a resolution intended to clarify the situation caused by the address of Herbert M. Sein, New York student, which caused a furor at yesterday's session.

Sein, who described himself as a Mexican-born internationalist, said that the youth of the world will rally to the workers, artisans and soldiers in a united refusal to fight in war. The speaker's utterances brought a rebuke from a local delegate and mingled cheers and antagonistic demonstrations.

Dr. Henry A. Atkinson, general secretary of the American Council, said this draft of a resolution was under consideration:

"That the alliance sympathizes with the feeling of young men of the horrors of war and looks forward to the education of young men in these principles until there can be established agencies to substitute reason for force in international disputes and at the same time stands against any type of internationalism that tends to destroy the confidence and love of young men in our country, that dishonors our flag or deprecates a true Christian patriotism."

GARRISON AND KINDLER AT THE AUDITORIUM

The opening event of the evening series of Parker lectures is scheduled for tomorrow evening at the Memorial Auditorium, it being a joint recital of Mabel Garrison, soprano, and Hans Kindler, cellist, two of the best known musical artists in America.

Miss Garrison has been announced for Martin Kurensky, the Russian soprano who, because of the difficulties over passports just now being experienced by many European artists, has, as yet, been unable to reach this country.

Miss Garrison has not only a voice of wonderful sweetness, which she is able to use with artistic excellence, but she has a sincerity and charm of manner which at once captivates her audience. She is to appear in a rich and varied program and will sing Gounod's "Ave Maria" with Mr. Kindler's accompaniment on the cello.

Hans Kindler has won the indisputable rank with that small galaxy of stars who stand at the pinnacle of the musical profession. Superlatives come readily to the pen of the critic reviewing his art.

A dazzling technique, a warm, rich tone glowing with color, a poetic insight and infinite variety of expression are outstanding characteristics of Kindler's art. Added to his superb musical equipment is a personality of rare charm, which captivates his audiences before he plays a single note.

As in the case of so many musicians who have achieved especial distinction, Hans Kindler comes of a musical family. Both his parents were musicians, his mother being an accomplished pianist. He was born in Rotterdam, in 1892. Famous musicians, among them Busoni, Wirth, of the Joachim quartet, and Wilke, then a student, were frequent visitors at the Kindler home, where they often participated in music-making. It was there that Kindler got his first enthusiasm for music, especially the cello.

POLISH AUTHOR WINS 1924 NOBEL PRIZE

ANNOUNCE CASES SETTLED OUT OF COURT

Actions of tort brought by Margaret F. Sullivan against the City of Lowell and the Lajolo Coal Co. involving injury received by the plaintiff when she fell on an alleged defective sidewalk in front of the Lajolo office in Gorham street, were settled out of court this morning. A jury to hear the case was empaneled yesterday afternoon, but announcement of settlement was made at the opening of court today.

Another settlement was announced in the case of William Mullen against James H. Sparks, marked for trial today. Mullen sought to recover for damage sustained to his automobile when it was in collision with the city ambulance at the intersection of Thorndike and Middlesex streets.

CONTRACT FOR NEW NAVAL FLYING BOAT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—A contract for a naval flying boat capable of making a sustained flight from the west coast of Honolulu has been signed by the bureau of naval aeronautics. Specifications call for a proven capacity of five passengers and a ton of freight.

FINED $25 FOR KILLING DEER

NEW BEDFORD, Nov. 13.—Joseph Laird, claimed he found a deer dead in the woods. A Carver game warden demonstrated in Wareham court this morning that he must have found at least three. Expert deer hunters testified that a large deer head, spreading antlers, two dripping with blood, and unequal legs were legs wouldn't make four animals. Laird was fined $25 for the killings.

FRESHMEN CLIP HAIR OF WOMEN INSTRUCTORS

BATON ROUGE, La., Nov. 13.—What over action that may be taken as a result of the annual hair-cutting activities of students of Louisiana state university, which ended yesterday when members of the freshman class invaded the Baton Rouge high school and cut the hair of three women instructors, and girl students, and clipped the tresses of boy students, was awaited the return within a few days of Col. T. D. Boyd, president of the institution from Washington.

The Baton Rouge school authorities have placed the matter before acting President F. L. Scott, but it is believed that decision as to action will be held up until Mr. Boyd's return.

High school teachers stated that many of the students, mostly girls, were forcibly taken from their classrooms. Five teachers also were taken out, but two succeeded in fighting themselves free.

The hair-cutting started Tuesday night, when sophomores shaved the heads of 300 freshmen.

United States senator in opposition to David I. Walsh, democrat, but President Coolidge's wish that the manufacturer undertake direction of the republican national campaign, brought him into the larger field as chairman of the national committee instead. The success of the republican campaign was followed by a vacation intended to last two or three weeks, but Senator Lodge's grave illness cut it short.

It had been understood that Mr. Butler would have a place in the new cabinet of President Coolidge and that continued association with the president in this connection was desired by him, but the senator's death changed the plans.

The senator-designate, who practiced law at New Bedford for years and was elected to the house and senate over a period of six years, serving as president of the latter body before he came to this city in 1915, has been active in shipbuilding and cotton manufacturing interests since that time. His interests also included power and railway companies.

The naming of Mr. Butler by Governor Cox was not unexpected, the only other person prominently mentioned in connection with the senate contest was D. Loring Young, speaker of the Massachusetts house of representatives, who stood aside from the contest for the republican nomination for United States senator in opposition to David I. Walsh, democrat, in the primaries this fall. At that time it was said that in declining to seek the nomination Mr. Young bowed to the wish of those high in the councils of his party and received assurances of support should he later to succeed Senator Lodge on the latter's expected retirement at the end of his six-year term.

The governor made no statement in announcing the appointment. Summoning the state house newspaper representatives to his office, he said: "Gentlemen, I believe I have no surprise. I am now signing the commission of William M. Butler as United States senator to succeed Mr. Lodge."

While House Pleased

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Word of the appointment of William M. Butler as senator from Massachusetts was received with undisguised approval today by the White House.

Throughout his service as republican field marshal in the presidential campaign, Mr. Butler worked in close cooperation with President Coolidge and his successor to the senate is regarded as adding to the membership of that body an unfailing supporter of administration policies and an advisor to whom the president can turn trustfully when he seeks counsel on major questions of legislation.

The selection was expected among those close to Mr. Coolidge. There has been no outward indication that such a choice was advised from Washington but it was no secret that among the president's most intimate friends Butler was favored for the place made vacant by the death of Senator Lodge.

Causal interest was taken here in the appointment both because the vacancy was in the president's home state and because of Butler's position as chairman of the republican national committee and his intimate association with the president's policies.

For these reasons the appointment is expected to have at least an indirect bearing on the question of selecting a party leader in the senate in succession to Senator Lodge. There has been no suggestion that Butler, a new senator, will be elevated to that post, but his advice undoubtedly will be sought when the question of a new alignment comes up for decision.

The number of pupils enrolled in the public schools of America has increased nearly one-third in the last 20 years.

TAKE NOTE OF RECENT MERGER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The department of justice has taken note of the recent merger announced in New York of big baking interests with headquarters there, Attorney-General Stone said today, but he added, he would not discuss the merger at this time. The department's interest would be in safeguarding the anti-trust laws.

STONE AVAILS Full Report

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The department of justice will await a full report from United States Attorney Woodcock at Baltimore before it is willing to comment on the effect of the hospital of Representative John Philip Hill in the older manufacture case. Attorney-General Stone explained that there could be no appeal by the government under the law and that therefore the case against Mr. Hill becomes a closed incident insofar as the government is concerned.

In the milk inspector's department there is also careful watch being kept for any sign of infected milk. Milk Inspector Melvin Master said this morning that if any outbreak of scarlet fever should be reported along one or two milk routes, his department would immediately check up on the source of supply of the milk in the infected area and, if traces of any infection were found, isolate that source.

Health officials are optimistic, however, that there is but little danger of any outbreak here because of the school follow-up system and also because of the very efficient milk inspection service rendered by Inspector Master and his assistants.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The department of justice will await a full report from United States Attorney Woodcock at Baltimore before it is willing to comment on the effect of the hospital of Representative John Philip Hill in the older manufacture case. Attorney-General Stone explained that there could be no appeal by the government under the law and that therefore the case against Mr. Hill becomes a closed incident insofar as the government is concerned.

The opinion that the clause of the Volstead act defining beverages of more than half of one per cent. alcoholic content as illegal did not apply to home-made wines and cider, provided the product is non-intoxicating, "in fact."

Judge Soper also indicated by his ruling and his charge to the jury that the burden rested upon the government to show that such home products were intoxicating and a violation of the law.

Because of this system in the schools, it is believed that any minor outbreak which might occur could rapidly be checked and the persons stricken isolated from any others who would be liable to either catch or spread the disease.

In the milk inspector's department there is also careful watch being kept for any sign of infected milk. Milk Inspector Melvin Master said this morning that if any outbreak of scarlet fever should be reported along one or two milk routes, his department would immediately check up on the source of supply of the milk in the infected area and, if traces of any infection were found, isolate that source.

Health officials are optimistic, however, that there is but little danger of any outbreak here because of the school follow-up system and also because of the very efficient milk inspection service rendered by Inspector Master and his assistants.

An automobile truck belonging to Lett Brothers was slightly damaged when it caught fire in Dummer street about 12.15 o'clock today. Fire apparatus was summoned by telephone and quickly extinguished the blaze.

Votes—Will Not Complete Recount Today

The recount of votes cast in the state election for representative in the fifteenth district, as petitioned of the election commission by Rep. Fred O. Lewis, who was defeated for reelection by Cornelius J. O'Neill by a margin of 65 votes, was begun this morning and early this afternoon had resulted in a net gain of 14 votes for Mr. O'Neill. Both Mr. Lewis and Mr. O'Neill were present in person and Mr. Lewis was accompanied by Edgar M. Kent, secretary of the Lowell republican committee, while Attorney J. Joseph Hennessey accompanied by Mr. O'Neill. The recount is being held in the councilman's chamber and started at 9:30 o'clock. Precinct 1 of Ward 3 was first counted and in the first block of fifty votes Mr. O'Neill lost and Mr. Lewis gained one. Through the whole vote of the precinct a number of slight discrepancies were found, not amounting to more than a change of two votes, with but two exceptions. One block, about the tenth counted, gave Mr. O'Neill a gain of 20 votes and in the

(Special to The Sun)
BOSTON, Nov. 13.—Louis G. Lemay, police officer, and Alfred Lampron and Edmund J. Lussard, all of Lowell, arrested on October 12 on charges of illegal possession of 77 gallons of liquor at a camp at Mud pond, Tyngsboro, pleaded guilty before Judge Morton in United States district court today and were committed until Monday, Nov. 17, at 2 p. m. for disposition.

In the presentation of the case, the court was told that the liquor was seized at an outing held at the Mud pond camp for political and gaming purposes, that 37 men were present at the time of the raid and that a high official of the city of Lowell had just left prior to the appearance of the federal agents and other officers. Lemay's appearance in court was marked by extreme agitation on his part and at the close of the proceedings he broke into tears.

Follow-up System in Schools is Great Preventive

Regardless of the fact that severe scarlet fever epidemics are raging in Manchester, N. But because the prevalence of scarlet fever in this section, every possible precautionary measure is being taken to keep the city health state clean.

Through the "follow-up" system installed in the school by Dr. Francis A. Finnegan, director of school hygiene, every case of an infectious disease reported to the board of health by family physicians is carefully traced (Continued to last page)

Senator—Will Qualify at Once

BOSTON, Nov. 13.—William M. Butler, lawyer and manufacturer, who is chairman of the republican national committee, was appointed to succeed the late Henry Cabot Lodge as United States senator from Massachusetts by Governor Cox today. The governor had assurances that he will accept.

The appointment is for approximately two years as the seat cannot be filled by election until the next general election in 1926. This is in accordance with a law enacted two years ago, giving the governor authority to appoint a successor to fill such vacancies as may develop between elections.

Senator Lodge's term would have expired in 1925, and the winner of the election two years hence will serve only until that time.

Listening in 9000 Miles Away!

THE STRETCH BETWEEN HARTFORD, CONN., AND LAHORE, INDIA, NEARLY 9000 MILES, THAT B. D. VIRMANI, INSET, HOPES TO COVER

By M.E.A. Service
HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 13.—Nearly 9000 miles of land and sea separate America from B. D. Virmani, young radio amateur and student at Doshi Singh college, Lahore, India. Yet young Virmani hopes to transcend this expanse of sea, mountains, valleys and plains, and hear America talk!

His hope was expressed in a letter received here by F. H. Schnell, traffic manager of the American Radio Relay league. In it Virmani notifies American amateurs he will be at his set during the transatlantic tests this winter and asks them to call him, 9000 miles away.
If he hears such a call it will mark the longest distance ever spanned by amateur radio.

Virmani has been restricted under his license to a 100-watt transmitter, but he has applied for a special license to transmit on 550 watts.
"If I succeed in obtaining the special permission," he writes, "even then I cannot transmit as I have no power valves and my present circumstances do not allow me to purchase two 350-watt valves."

These tubes may be advanced to Virmani, in which case he says he will try to reach America with his new set on 100 meters.
At any rate, Virmani will listen in during the long distance tests, and he asks American amateurs to call him.

Children love the pleasant taste of "California Fig Syrup" and gladly take it even when bilious, feverish, sick, or constipated. No other laxative regulates the tender little bowels so nicely. It sweetens the stomach and starts the liver and bowels without cramping or overacting. Contains no narcotics or soothing drugs. Tell your druggist you want only the genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.—Adv.

CHURCH HOLDS FAIR IN HIGHLAND HALL
The annual church fair of Calvary Baptist church members' promotion, held in Highland hall, last evening, was a huge success in every way. Attendance broke all records and members of the Women's society of the church were greatly pleased to receive the hearty co-operation given by many members of the church and outside friends.

The sales tables contained many household articles and fancy work novelties among other varieties of offerings, useful and decorative. The principal entertainment feature was a one-act play, "No Men Wanted," produced by members of the Parlier Lights society. Misses Elizabeth Rawley, Isabelle Granger, Martha Phinney, Florence Lalline, Prynella Abercrombie and Edna Fraser took part. Mrs. E. F. Lalline was general chairman.

The committee chairman in charge of the annual Y.M.C.A. auxiliary fair, which is to be held Nov. 19 and 20, were announced today by Mrs. Thomas Coombs, general chairman, as follows: Fancy table, Mrs. Robie Johnson; domestic and cake, Mrs. Otis W. Butler; grab, Mrs. Harry Adams; candy, Mrs. Charles Brigham; apron, Mrs. orville Robinson. Assisting, Mrs. Coombs on the general committee are Mrs. Samuel W. Hinds and Mrs. Craven Midgely.

The supper committee for the opening evening consists of Mrs. Valentine Wilmet and Mrs. Murdoch MacKinnon while Mrs. Thomas Adams and Mrs. D. P. Ellis are in charge of the Thursday supper. Mrs. Robert Douglas is in charge of the dining room both evenings.

The entertainment Wednesday evening will be given by a ladies' orchestra under Miss Grace E. Kendrick, director, and a sketch by the Misses Doris Senior, Ruth Clough and Mary Livingston of St. Paul's church. Thursday's entertainment program is in charge of the Y. M. C. A. Miss Mildred Coombs, pianist, and Miss Olive Coombs, violinist, will give a number of selections on the Thursday program.

SURPRISE PARTY
A surprise party was rendered Miss Irene Carrigan at the home of her parents in Willie avenue last evening by a group of friends, the occasion being her 20th birthday. On behalf of the friends present, Miss Louise Desrosiers presented Miss Carrigan a wrist watch and a letter of best wishes was read by Master Leo Isamin, nephew of Miss Carrigan. General dancing and singing was enjoyed during the evening. Among those contributing to the evening's amusement were the following: Miss Marie Anger Therrien, Miss Jean Duree, Mrs. Jose Desrosiers.

Mr. and Mrs. George Campbell and the Misses Marie and Louise Corbelle, Mrs. Carrigan, assisted by Miss Alice Carrigan and Mrs. George Campbell, served refreshments. The affair was in charge of Mrs. Carrigan, Mr. and Mrs. George Campbell, Miss Louise Lottre and Mrs. William Therrien.

Dangerous Agonizing Asthma!

In New England, where Bronchial Asthma, Bronchitis and other diseases of the throat and lungs are so prevalent, remarkably successful results are being reported following the use of a new form of treatment known as Oxidase, a physician's prescription.

Oxidase is a harmless but powerful combination of curative essential oils concentrated and compressed into a small tablet. One of these tablets slowly dissolved before going to bed seems to have the effect of releasing the muscular constriction of the bronchial tubes, opening up the air passages and regulating spasmodic lung action. This enables the patient to breathe easily and naturally while lying down and to get a comfortable night's sleep.

So much interest has been shown that local druggists, including Green's Drug Store and Liggett's, have secured a small supply and state that they are authorized to refund the money paid for the first package if in any case this new treatment fails to give relief. Oxidase is pleasant to take, contains no harmful, habit-forming drugs and is not expensive. This makes their test an easy matter.—Adv.

SHARP, SHOOTING PAINS IN LIMBS

Mrs. Duffy Says That Every Bone In Her Body Ached With Rheumatic Pains

"I had severe pains in the muscles of my back and through my right hip," says Mrs. Thomas Duffy, of No. 41 Huntington avenue, Worcester, Mass. "At times every bone in my body would ache and there were sharp, shooting pains through my limbs. I could not sleep and I was unable to do my housework. My legs ached so that I could hardly pull myself upstairs. I took treatment for rheumatism but nothing really helped me until I tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills after reading in a paper of the good they had done in a case similar to mine.

"After the second box I noticed that I was getting rid of the pain and stiffness. By the time I had taken five boxes I was all right again. The pains had gone and I could walk without difficulty and do my own housework. With the relief from the pain I was able to get good rest at night and I not only gained in strength but also in weight.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold by your own druggist or will be sent direct by mail, post-paid, on receipt of price, sixty cents per box. Write to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. for free booklet, "Building Up the Blood," containing a special chapter on rheumatism.—Adv.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY EXTENSION SERVICE

The sixth annual meeting of Middlesex County Extension service and the Middlesex County Farm Bureau is to be held Saturday, Nov. 15, at the usual rallying place—Odd Fellows hall, Waltham. It is an event always looked forward to expectantly by leading county farmers, their wives and even the children, for there are programs arranged to interest all persons in any way connected with the conduct of modern farms and market garden prospects.

Starting at 10:15 a. m., Saturday morning will be devoted to a discussion of the year's accomplishments and talks by President N. I. Bowditch, County Commissioners A. L. Cutting and Erson B. Barlow, also other prominent men.

At noon, the annual "Middlesex county dinner" will be served, with willing ladies from numerous county towns bringing viands from the coun-

The Farm Bureau members—and their numbers are steadily increasing today in Dracut, Billerica and Towns-bury, which towns lead all the rest at present—are to hold a business meeting with election of officers, in the afternoon. The proposed "grain pool," which has been factored by grange national organization leaders, and which has been endorsed by many New England affiliated granges, among them being Carlisle, Littleton, Harvard, Acton, Concord and Slow, will be talked about once more, some new

This method of purchasing expensive fertilizers and the nitrates is now generally adopted where farmers can be got together in any locality in sufficient numbers to put the whole sale buying plan through on a strictly cash-as-you-receive basis. The Middlesex County Extension service deserves full credit for first suggesting the plan in the first place, and handling all details covering issuance of bids, selecting lowest prices for quality and making the deliveries practically to the farmers and market-gardeners' doors. Good money is thus saved in the process of securing required fertilizers of quality for the next year's crops.

demonstrations, so-called. Leaders interested in particular subjects referring to the homes of "city folks" as well as country folk, will also be present and will speak on problems that sometimes vex even gold medal house-keepers.

Then there comes a rally of the so-called 4-H club leaders. Achievement club directors and all others interested in club work, to consider questions of organization, leadership and winter club programs.

Again, starting at 8 o'clock in the afternoon, there will be a joint session at which time Dean Sarah Louise Arnold, formerly of Simmons college, and an excellent speaker with a splendid message to deliver at gatherings of modern home-makers, will deliver an address upon "Ideals of a Country Home." Farm Bureau members say that topic ought to go very, very big next Saturday afternoon.

Not forgetting, of course, the notable exhibits of important farm products and gardening pursuits, that the active county agents will also display in Odd Fellows hall, Waltham, all day

Saturday. There's a climax for one folks from the farms. It is a straight and all in this particular display that all county-agents' exhibition rarely is by no means of small proportions made anywhere else at this season of and sure to attract and delight the year.

Any Skin Eruption
Healed With Sulphur

Irritation and Breaking Out Often Healed Over Night, Says Skin Specialist

Any breaking out or skin irritation on face, neck or body is overcome quickest by applying Menthosulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation that instantly brings ease from the itching, burning and irritation. Menthosulphur heals eczema right up, leaving the skin clear and smooth. It seldom fails to relieve the torment or disfigurement. A little jar of Rowles Menthosulphur may be obtained at any drug store. It is used like cold cream.—Adv.

HOLD BOX PARTY

An enjoyable box party was held in Odd Fellows hall last evening by over 75 young men and women. Manuel Diaz and Miss Ethel Poulet were in charge of the auction sale. Following the sale an entertainment program was given with the following participating: Manuel Diaz, Miss Esther Landry, Miss Ethel Poulet, Charles Souza, Raymond Pelletier and Albert O'Brien. Refreshments were served by the hospitality committee and dancing was enjoyed.

ACIDS IN STOMACH
CAUSE INDIGESTION

Create Gas, Sourness and Pain. How to Treat.

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sour, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try laying aside all digestive aids and instead of from any druggist a few ounces of Bismarck Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Bismarck Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.—Adv.

RED PEPPER HEAT
ENDS CHEST COLDS

Ease your tight, aching chest. Stop the pain. Break up the congestion. Feel a bad cold loosen up in just a short time.

"Red Pepper Rub" is the cold remedy that brings quickest relief. It cannot hurt you and it certainly seems to end the tightness and drive the congestion and soreness right out.

Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers, and when heat penetrates right down into colds, congestion, aching muscles and sore, stiff joints relief comes at once.

The moment you apply Red Pepper Rub you feel the tingling heat. In three minutes the congested spot is warmed through and through. When you are suffering from a cold, rheumatism, backache, stiff neck or sore muscles, just get a jar of Rowles Red Pepper Rub, made from red peppers, at any drug store. You will have the quickest relief known.—Adv.

BUSINESS IS GOOD AT THE CAR SHOPS

Billerica car shops are operating regularly on full-week working schedules in every department except one. The wood-working section has a temporary five-day employment schedule for the present.

The plant pay-roll now shows a daily employment complement of nearly 2000 machinists, carpenters, painters and other necessary workmen in branches busy regularly in locomotive and car repair departments.

Because of the extra work called for in the former branch, about 60 men are employed nights, on shifts from 5 p. m. until 6:40 a. m. These men are from Lowell, and return to the city on the morning "special" that leaves the Billerica yards at 6:40 and departs from Lowell every week day for Billerica at 7:12 a. m. The day work is on the 48-hour basis, as usual.

Today, between 800 and 900 car shop workers make their homes in Lowell. Very few local employees went "down the line" each morning during the car shop strike and for some little time

After the strike was settled. Today, however, "old times on the sunrise railway" is the rule, and, according to reports will be likely to continue indefinitely while the B. & M. is furnishing up all old equipment and keeping its rejuvenatorial experts busy.

Several new Lowell workmen, woodworkers' label, have secured jobs there this month and are sticking closely and boasting of their luck. One of them has been a Middlesex station employee for several years, but caught the fever to join the Billerica shopmen's "gang" from seeing the crews pile onto the morning "extra" that carries them all back and forth daily to their places of employment.

COMMODORE BALLROOM
"Mat" Hallett and his orchestra will be the attraction at the Commodore ballroom this evening and again on Saturday evening. There will be dancing from 8:30 until 12, the check system being used. The admission on both evenings will be 10 cents.

STAND COLLARS
Standing collars and bow ties that hug the neckline are very smart on the tailleur costume.

Rich men of ancient Rome wore sandals that were elaborately embroidered and set with precious stones.

GAGNON EMPLOYEES HOLD ANNUAL BANQUET

At 8:30 o'clock the business meeting was held with President James Saunders in the chair. The reports of the secretary, Miss Yvonne Lambert, and the treasurer, George Lanctot, were read and accepted. The election of officers followed and the result was as follows: President, Michael McInerney; vice president, Catherine Mack; secretary, Irene Gubnon; treasurer, George Lanctot; collector, Mabel Foley; auditors, Emilie Gagnon, Gertrude Burns and James Murphy.

A short talk was given the members following the election by James Murphy, manager of the "Times". Following the banquet, an entertainment consisting of songs by Mrs. Nora Regan Langlin and Miss Cecile Morn, and dances by Miss Rose Housell was enjoyed. Upon the conclusion of the entertainment program, the members adjourned to the Crescent hall, where bowling was enjoyed until late in the evening.

The guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gagnon, Emilie Gagnon, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Desrosiers.

ST. PETER'S GIRLS' CLUB PRESENTS PLAY

"A Magician From Morocco," a play in three acts was given last evening by the St. Peter's Girls' club in the school hall before a large number of relatives and friends. The proceeds of which will be devoted to the publishing fund of the "Buzz," a weekly paper written by the girls.

The sketch was most enjoyable, the scene being laid in the home of Alma Meredith at the close of the college season, and in the "Aladdin Lamp Tea Room," Milton, N. H., where developments came to a rapid, yet pleasing climax.

The cast of characters in last evening's performance was as follows: Jacqueline Powers, Mary Kennebec; Constence Dean, Rose McLaughlin; Geraldine Mason, Anna Lawler; Alma Meredith, Edith McLaughlin; Aunt Maggie, Mrs. Arthur Gardner; Barbara Martin, Corinne Regnier; Shirley Phillips, Margaret Donahue; Magician from Morocco, Mary Kennebec.

CHARGE W. S. STONE WITH INCONSISTENCY

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 13.—The United Mine Workers national headquarters has issued a statement charging Warren S. Stone, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, with inconsistency in handling union labor at the Coal river collieries, which is controlled by the brotherhood members. The statement says that Stone refused to pay the Jacksonville agreement union coal wage scale because he claimed the company could not afford it. It charges also that the coal river collieries has resorted to the practice of eviction, and that the company lately imported strike breakers to operate some of its mines.

SOME FINE MENUS FOR THE FAMILY

Breakfast—Orange juice, rolled oats cooked with raisins, creamed, dried beef on toast, reheated scalloped potatoes, toasted corn bread, grape jelly, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Poa soufflé, whole wheat bread, hearts of lettuce with French dressing, cranberry whip, drop cookies, milk, tea.

Dinner—Pot roast of veal, rice, potatoes with cheese, diced white turnips in cream sauce, grape fruit salad, chocolate bread pudding, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.

A child under school age will find a breakfast of orange juice, the cereal, toasted corn bread with butter, and jelly and a glass of milk most satisfying. But kiddies of school age need the heartier meal suggested.

Poa Soufflé

Three tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 cup milk, 1 cup peas rubbed through strainer, 2 eggs, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1/2 tablespoon minced parsley.

Place peas under running water and rub through a sieve. There should be 1 cup. Melt butter, stir in flour and slowly add milk, stirring constantly. Add pea pulp to sauce. Beat yolks of eggs until thick and lemon colored and add to mixture. Season with salt and pepper and parsley. Add whites of eggs beaten until stiff and dry. Do not add the whites with a stirring motion but rather with a lifting and folding motion. Turn into a well buttered baking dish and bake in a moderate oven until firm to the touch. It will take from thirty to forty minutes to bake the soufflé. Serve at once or the soufflé will fall.

Cranberry Whip

Two cups cranberries, 1 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 2 tablespoons granulated gelatin, 1/2 cup cold water, 2 eggs (whites).

Soften gelatin in cold water. Put 1/2 cups water and cranberries into a sauce pan and cook until cranberries are tender, about twenty minutes. Rub through a fine sieve. Add sugar and bring to a boiling point. Remove from the fire and add softened gelatin. Stir until gelatin is dissolved. Cool and add lemon juice. Let stand until the mixture thickens. Beat whites of eggs until stiff and dry and fold into gelatin mixture. Let stand until the whole thickens and then beat with a Dover beater until light. Turn into a mold to chill and become firm.

Baked Potatoes With Cheese

Three cups rice potatoes, 1 cup milk, 1/2 cup cheese, 1 egg, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, dash mustard.

Heat milk into hot potatoes and season with salt and pepper. Beat yolks of egg until thick and add to potato mixture. Add cheese and mustard and keep hot. Beat white of egg until stiff and dry and fold into mixture. Turn into a buttered baking dish and bake twenty minutes in a hot oven.

minutes telephone call received at headquarters telling them if you got a report of a gang shooting their guns in the east fifth street, don't pay any attention to it. The noise was their automobile exhaust.

The shooting occurred after Rosen and Adelson returned from a phoebia game. As they drove in Rosen's yard in his automobile, they were shot, who are sisters, heard six or seven shots. The women found their husbands lying face down in the grass outside the open garage. Their clothes were rumpled and the sad trampled.

Adelson was killed by a 32-calibre lead bullet, one of which pierced his throat, and the other passed through his head. Rosen's wound was above the heart, where a 28-calibre steel jacket bullet had passed. No weapons were found in the yard or garage. Neighbors reported having seen three men drive away in an automobile shortly after the shooting.

APPLY THE INDUSTRIAL "PANACEA"

Among the republican leaders, the talk of tax reductions is so insistent that it would not be surprising if they induced President Coolidge to call an extra session of congress to deal with the whole question.

The publication of the enormous income taxes paid by some industries shows the drain upon the resources and the crushing weight of the higher surtaxes coming down from war days. The republican leaders have agreed with Secretary Mellon that these taxes have been one of the main causes of the industrial depression and that if they be reduced as proposed by Secretary Mellon, business will receive an impetus that will be felt over the country in a great industrial revival and a call for the employees that have been idle for many months past.

The republican party will be in control. If the leaders want these surtaxes scaled down, the sooner it is done the better for all concerned. Business is on the mend anyhow, and if that will help, let the reduction be made as soon as possible. Before the publication of the income taxes, very few realized that some of the large industries of the country have had to pay millions of dollars in taxes over and above the ordinary taxes collected before the war. If relieved of these taxes they would certainly have greater encouragement to work their factories to full capacity.

Moreover, it is claimed that the capital which was driven to refuge in tax exempt securities would be invested in productive industry if these taxes were removed or even reduced to the extent favored by Secretary Mellon.

We should be glad to see the experiment tried. The republicans after March 4 next, will have a free hand and they can do as they please in this matter. The administration is responsible for the results and if it has a panacea for the business stagnation the people of all parties will welcome its application.

Senator Borah who has been opposed to President Coolidge on the world court and other matters of importance is insistent upon the calling of a special session of congress after March 4. The republicans will have to placate Borah who is one of the principal disturbers of the administration. He also advocates the recognition of Russia against which Secretary Hughes has firmly set his face. The administration leaders will undoubtedly hold a council of war to decide what they will do with the recalcitrant senators who have been opposed to many phases of the administration policy laid down by the president. These senators also demand that the administration shall promptly carry out its pledges of tax reduction and relief for the farming interests.

This calls for congressional action before the regular time for the new congress to assemble a year from next December so that in all probability the president, although now against calling an extra session, may be forced to do so by the appeals from the moderate insurgents which the leaders wish to hold within the party faces.

THE QUESTION OF COAL

For the past month, the weather has been so fine that a great many people are said to have neglected or forgotten to lay in their supply of coal for the winter, so that if cold weather came suddenly they would find difficulty in having their bins promptly filled.

Notwithstanding the fact that Lowell coal merchants are fairly well supplied with anthracite coal to meet all normal demands for some time to come, Chairman Eugene C. Hultman, of the state commission on the necessities of life, has issued an interesting statement in which he calls attention to the curtailment being made in Pennsylvania anthracite coal-mining operations at the present time.

In many respects, the production of anthracite from its immense pockets underground, has been practically stationary during the past ten years. Mr. Hultman tells us, while the population of the country has increased about 15 per cent. Either the production of this coal must be increased or the consumption decreased to bring about a reduction in present prices for the hard coals, or even to prevent prices from going higher.

Attention is also called to the fact that the anthracite mines and the miners' union directly control the production and cannot be counted upon to increase the output, even at present high prices. Increasing the output, of course, would mean that prices for the different anthracite grades would have to come down, and that would not suit the Pennsylvania barons nor the organization of workers, both so closely allied in mining operations affecting yearly amount of production.

The old hope to the effect that the supply of anthracite coal in the Pennsylvania regions will be exhausted in about eight or ten years, receives no support from eminent geologists in the government service. According to reliable investigators, the supply of anthracite in the grounds is estimated to be sufficient to serve the country's demands for about 150 years. Consequently, as Mr. Hultman brings out clearly in his survey of the coal situation, incidentally boosting the use of more bituminous coal in the homes, the ultimate depletion of coal is not a problem affecting the prices to the present generation.

There is plenty of coal in the mines, plenty in the local coal terminals; but at concerns most people just now on the verge of winter is whether there is enough in their cellars to serve through the cold season ahead.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION

It seems that according to the decision of a federal judge at Baltimore, Md., the restrictions of the Volstead law do not apply to the manufacture of elder fruit juices or even home brew for home consumption provided they are not for sale and that they are not intoxicating. This decision has resulted from the trial of a case brought against Congressman Hill of Maryland who insisted that he had a right under the law to make elder or other fruit juices and grape wine for home consumption. In this contention, he has been sustained by the court and the idea that "a man's home is his castle" still stands. But it is not to be assumed that this lessens in any degree the force of the law as applied to the sale of such beverages.

TREATING WITH PERSIA

Sometimes out of a national loss comes permanent good. When Vice Consul Imbrie was cruelly murdered by Persian fanatics this nation mourned his loss with mingled feelings of sorrow and indignation. Persia, however, has tried to make amends as best she could by executing the guilty and offering payment of $160,000 indemnity for the death of the official. Of that sum $40,000 goes to the Imbrie family and the remaining $120,000 to defray the expense of a war vessel to bring Imbrie's body home to the United States. By a wise stroke of diplomacy, the state department has notified Persia that this amount will be used to establish a trust for the education of Persian students in the institutions of this country. That will serve to cement a bond of friendship between this country and Persia. It is comparable to the consideration act of our government in returning the Boxer indemnity to China under conditions that deeply impressed the Chinese people and laid the foundation for more friendly relations with our government and greater respect in that country for our flag than could otherwise be attained.

EMMA GOLDMAN CONVERTED

Miss Emma Goldman is reported to be thoroughly disgusted with the brand of freedom she has found in Russia under the title of Bolshevism. She is now in England and is to go on a speaking tour through the country in favor of amnesty for the Russian prisoners. Emma was deported from this country as a general disturber, an advocate of revolutionary doctrine, and consequently a menace to the government. It is quite likely that if she were permitted to return she would now admit that in her experience abroad she has nowhere found a country that affords so much personal and political freedom as does the United States.

The New York World had a very peculiar comment upon the death of Senator Lodge which ran thus: "In view of the comment on the galleries and on the character of Senator Lodge which has appeared in this paper in the course of the last few years, The World is inclined to feel that the World is not responsible for The World to be printed without apology or dispraise without offense."

Was it merely a coincidence that Senator Lodge was stricken by a fatal shock about an hour after he heard the news of the great Coolidge republican victory? The senator had been deprived of his leadership in the Cleveland convention and the big victory was a setback for all Coolidge's enemies. It apparently killed the senator.

Justice John W. Goff of New York who has just passed away, was a man of admirable traits of character, including indomitable courage. He sent a ship to Australia to rescue John Boyle O'Reilly, an act for which the whole Irish race owes him a debt of gratitude.

It is in line with his usual policy for President Coolidge to oppose any elaborate display or unnecessary expense in connection with the inaugural exercises.

Chief Justice Hughes of the Massachusetts supreme court is mentioned for a place on the supreme bench of the United States. He is eminently fitted for such an exalted judicial position. It is expected that Secretary Hughes will remain in the cabinet. He has made an able official and was the one redeeming feature of the Harding official family.

The Poor Man

Bessie, in town with her mother, caught sight of a bald-headed man. "O, mother," she exclaimed, "that man! He hasn't a hair on his head! Isn't it sad?" "Hush!" replied her mother. "He will hear you." "O," said Bessie, in subdued tones, "Doesn't he know it?"

Piling It On

It was Friday night and he had just received notice of a reduction in his wages. He walked homeward mournfully, and when 10 yards from his door slipped on some oranges peel. His head came to rest on some water lying on the pavement. He looked at the paper in a dazed sort of way, and saw that it was a book cover with the title, "You Never Know Your Luck."

Boston's Pennants

On being offered a Boston joke the editor of a humorous weekly proceeded to take the alleged humorist to task in an unmerciful manner. "Don't use any point to these whims about the alleged proclivities of Boston," declared the editor. "They're out of date, to say the least. Boston has won her share of pennants and was once the home of John L. Sullivan."

Went Looney Again

This is the latest mark story. After 13 years' confinement a lunatic was released from a Berlin asylum. Having a taxi, he asked to be driven to the station. He held the fare with a 20-mark gold piece he had secured all the 13 years. To his surprise the taxi driver gave him change—four thousand billion marks or so. The ex-lunatic counted the money and gasped: "Drive me back to the asylum!"

"Our Boarding House"

Unless Gene Ahern's hunch is a flat tire, the great mass of American people get a real kick out of slang expressions. There's so darn much punch in 'em. Folks kinder get tired of everyday lingo and they lean to slang for relief. And that's why Ahern is using slang—original slang—in his famous comic, "Our Boarding House." The popularity of this strip is proof that the hunch isn't a flat tire. Read it and the only ones who come up for air—after a laugh—are the country folks. You'll have a great time in Ahern's "Boarding House." Follow the crowd in The Sun.

Good Race, Anyway

"Talkin' about runnin'," said the seedy man, "about the finest bit of sprintin' I ever saw was in the country year before last. I'd been out all day rabbit shootin', and had the most awful luck, when I spied a whopin' grey horse about 200 yards away. Talkin' a careful sight, I let fly. But the instant my bullet touched him, and before it had time to penetrate his skin, that hare was off like a flash. I never saw such two evenly matched things as that hare and my bullet. For over half a mile they sped on together, neither gainin' on the other, the bullet just managin' to keep in touch with the hare's skin. At the end of a mile, however, the pace began to lull on the hare and he faltered for a moment. 'Twass fatal. The bullet sped on and the poor beast was howled over. He deserved his freedom if ever an animal did. He'd have got it, too, if he could have stuck out another 20 yards, for that's about as far as my rifle carries."

Will Think of That

I'll think of that, at that soft hour, When fade the parting hues of day, And o'er each grove, and woodland bow, The balmy gales of summer play. When night around her mantle throws, And stars illumine the deep blue sea—When weary Nature seeks repose, Oh then—I'll dream—I'll dream of thee.

When from the east Aurora breaks, And night's dark shadows glide away; When Nature from her slumber wakes, To hail with joy the opening day.

GIRL SCOUTS HOLD SUCCESSFUL BAZAAR

Greater Lowell council, Girl Scouts of America, held a highly successful bazaar and whist party yesterday afternoon in Colonial and Middlesex halls, with the end in view to secure funds for the council for the continuance of scout activities in general. The bazaar was held in Middlesex hall, attractively decorated with pine boughs, while whist was played in Colonial hall. Refreshments were served and several sales tables did a satisfactory business. Many of the girls donated food, dainties, candies and other things placed on sale.

The affair was in general charge of Miss Marion Hill, Girl Scout commissioner, assisted by the following council members: Mrs. Otis Humphrey, Miss Elizabeth Patterson, Mrs. Herbert Fletcher, Mrs. Henry Kershaw, Mrs. Chester Queen, Mrs. Walter Dutton, Mrs. Herbert Fletcher, Mrs. Paul Dutton, Miss Winifred Nelson, Mrs. David Dewar, Mrs. Harry Prescott, Mrs. Charles Cooke and Mrs. Hamner.

The tables and whist were in charge of the following: Christmas greens—Capt. Lillian H. Hill, Troop 3; Mrs. Herbert Fletcher and Mrs. Otis Humphrey. Candy tables—Mrs. Elizabeth Patterson, Capt. Irene Kershaw of Troop 8.

Food table—Mrs. Herbert Fletcher, Mrs. David Dewar, Mrs. Chester Queen, Mrs. Charles Cooke and Mrs. Walter Dutton. Bridge tables and refreshments—Mrs. Hammond Barnes and Miss Mary Reilly.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

"Middlesex County Bulletin" arrives on time as usual, and it's the November issue, of course, covering all departments in the usual way, clearly, fully and interesting always in reporting the doings of the county agricultural workers in home economics and excellent accounts of different doings of the boys and girls who belong regularly to the young folks' club associations. "The Bulletin" discusses the fruit market situation, dwelling upon the hard apple that is in the fall of the year. It avers that this season's crop as a whole was not up to expectations. Many farmers are marketing "poor quality." Unquestionably this sort of fruit has injured the price for all other grades. The county bureau of extension is planning to conduct an extensive campaign urging farmers to do better apple tree spraying in the spring of the year. They claim many Middlesex apple orchards badly need it today.

In the press room at city hall during the recent state and city primaries and elections many persons gather. Among the more familiar figures who are habitual, but welcome visitors to the hall of the fourth establers even party men, are assistant to Probation Officer Joseph Cronin, and D. Murray Cummings, principal of the Lincoln school, and son of Lawrence Cummings, veteran newspaper man. For the past several years, this duo of attending the tabulation of ballots has been a regular sight. The duo stuck to the job until 6 a. m. yesterday morning.

HELD DANCING PARTY IN THE TOWN HALL

Chelmsford Parent-Teacher association members conducted a pretty dancing party in town hall, Chelmsford Centre last evening, young and old happily mingling on the floor and spending several hours enjoying dances new and old. Refreshments were served by a committee led by Miss Beryl Ruffus. Associate members included Mrs. Garfield Davis, Mrs. Raymond C. Hazeltine and Mrs. Frank R. McMaster. Perley W. Kimball and E. E. McMaster assisted in decorating the hall. The proceeds of the entertainment will be used to pay for the luncheon served to the grade school pupils.

A. F. OF L. HEADS CONSIDER POLITICAL POLICY

EL PASO, Texas, Nov. 13.—(By the Associated Press)—Chloftains of the American Federation of Labor turned today to consideration of political policy. The meeting was one of a series intended to evolve for submission to the convention a special report touching upon relationships between the federation and any new party movement which may grow out of the presidential campaign just concluded.

President Samuel Gompers presided at the initial session. Lessons for labor from the presidential campaign were planned in form a large part of the final report of the meetings.

The report probably will be presented next Tuesday. The program for Monday, the opening day, is filled with inaugural formalities and the president's annual message.

President Gompers, 74, and in high fettle for the 44th annual convention of the federation, arrived yesterday with hundreds of state and local leaders from all sections of the east and north. He views the forthcoming gathering as one of the most important in the history of the organization. Departmental meetings carried over into today's pre-convention program several questions which may reach the convention floor. Foremost among them was the action of the building trades department yesterday in formally demanding suspension from the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, with a membership throughout the country of some 350,000, 14 moves calculated to dispose of the matter amicably continued today after a night of sounding described as "not so very encouraging."

The suspension was demanded by a vote of the building trades department convention as a disciplinary move against the carpenters for their refusal to accept an arbitrator's award in a jurisdictional dispute with the sheet metal workers, and the subsequent withdrawal of the wood craftsmen from the building trades department.

TO DISCUSS FUTURE GOVERNMENT OF CHINA

CANTON, Nov. 13.—At the request of the North China leaders, Dr. Sun Yat Sen, president of the provisional government of South China, will leave tomorrow to take part in the conference at Peking to discuss the future government of China.

Sun will be accompanied by 32 advisers. He will sail on the Japanese liner Shinyo Maru, accommodations having been provided through the Japanese consul.

Requests for Sun's attendance were received from Tuan Chi-Jui, former premier; Chang Tso-Lin, the Manchurian chief; Feng, Hu-Sing, the present military head of the Chinese Government, and many other leaders. The situation in Canton is quiet.

TO ORGANIZE NATIONAL WOOL EXCHANGE

HELENA, Mont., Nov. 13.—Organization of the National Wool Exchange, composed of western wool growers and live stock dealers to provide for orderly marketing of the wool crops of Montana, Wyoming, South Dakota and other western states, was planned here yesterday. Western sales office and warehouses in Helena, headquarters will be in Helena. The exchange will be organized under the laws of Delaware, with a capitalization of $200,000. The new organization will be a reorganization of and successor to the National Wool Warehouse and Storage company, which is being liquidated.

SUIT AGAINST THE PAN-AMERICAN COMPANY

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 13.—Owen J. Roberts, special prosecutor appointed by President Coolidge, had the privilege of opening arguments today in federal court in connection with the suit against the Pan-American Petroleum and Transportation Company. Presentation of testimony in the naval oil reserve lease cancellation case was completed yesterday.

After Roberts' argument, Frank J. Hogan, Walter K. Tuller and Frederick R. Kellogg intended to argue for the defense while former Senator Alton Pomeroy planned to close for the government.

TO USE AIRPLANES TO TRANSPORT FREIGHT

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—The American Railway Express company is ready to use airplanes for the transportation of freight, if a dependable service is offered it, Robert E. M. Cowie, president of the company, told a gathering of airplane manufacturers and pilots here last night.

"The company will grant an exclusive contract for the carrying of its packages to any aerial transportation firm which can show a dependable and efficient service," he said. Advocating the establishment of a new air department by the government, Mr. Cowie urged active participation by the government in subsidizing large commercial transportation companies.

POLICE MYSTIFIED BY FOREST FIRES BURNED

LOS ANGELES MURDER OVER 21,000 ACRES

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Nov. 13.—The police today admitted they were mystified by the murder Monday night of Harry I. Katz, musician, real estate operator and diamond broker.

Chase Carroll, barber and husband of a woman friend of Katz, the second man detained for questioning, was released early today after he had established an alibi.

The other man questioned and released was Jial Hall, Santa Monica real estate broker, who met Katz less than ten minutes before the shooting. He was instructed to report at central police station again today, as was Carroll.

The trail of diamonds which investigators believe yet may solve the slaying of Katz, who seemed to have carried on all his affairs in terms of precious stones, grew more definite yesterday with the discovery of four valuable diamonds pledged by Katz in a Los Angeles pawn shop, but two safe deposit boxes expected to yield missing gems revealed unimportant papers.

PRINCETON AND YALE FINISH UP TRAINING FOR BIG GAME

Rival Forces on Edge for Battle in Palmer Stadium Saturday—Cornell to Face Dartmouth at Polo Grounds
—Columbia Meets Army

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The Tiger was edged and the bulldog landed after light exercise at Princeton and Yale yesterday, in finishing preparations for their game Saturday in Palmer stadium in Princeton.

Bill Roper has trained the Tiger after bitter experiences in his early attempts. Guided by defeat and a little of the racing-drum and stick redeemed itself by its victory over Harvard Saturday and will face the New Haven foe with confidence. Two sets of teeth have been provided for the coming combat. Williams, Single, Gilligan and Watkins comprise the set which snips at the enemy, and Diamond, Slagle, Caldwell and Dignan the set that grapples and never relinquishes its hold.

The bulldog, engaged in a dummy rehearsal, will indulge in a signal drill today and on Friday leaves for practice at Palmer stadium. Standish, with the freshest and sharpest for two years, was in Bingham's place at end today.

Both Bingham and Lindley, hurt last Saturday, were at the field but did not practice. Dartmouth at the Polo Grounds on Saturday with only half of the team that conquered the New Hampshire eleven at Hanover a few days ago. It will be Dartmouth's last contest with Cornell. The Thanksgiving day will attempt to humble Pennsylvania, the only undefeated and untied eleven of prominence in the east.

Columbia believes that it has mastered many of the plays centered about Harry Wilson which are likely to be tried when the New York institution meets the Army at West Point. Pease and Koppisch, the running aces of the Columbia attack, were absent yesterday but will be back in uniform for the final drill today.

Pennsylvania's undefeated eleven has arrived at Absecon, N. J., to rest before attacking Penn State in what is regarded by Coach Lou Young as the crucial contest of the season.

AMESBURY HIGH NEXT BURNS SETS RECORD

Will Oppose Lowell High at Alumni Field Saturday Afternoon

Instilled with a new fighting spirit after its 7-0 victory over Haverhill last Saturday, Lowell high will take the field against Amesbury high at Alumni field next Saturday afternoon. In the first home game since the team put up a mediocre season against Amesbury high, Amesbury has a new L. H. S. eleven in action against Concord, and did not see the team that walked Haverhill seven days later, nor will they ever see that same team in action again this season without fighting every inch of ground to land a win.

Since the Haverhill debacle, football has taken on a new lease of life here. The players have snapped into it with a will and spirit never before exemplified in the ranks of the high school team, and the fans have come to their aid with unstinted moral support.

Amesbury high, the eleven which Lowell battles and hopes to batter Saturday, has just the kind of a team that will cause the Lions and Gals all kinds of trouble. This same team lost a heart-breaking 9-7 verdict to Marblehead early in the season, and Marblehead played Haverhill to a scoreless tie. By comparative scores, therefore, indications point to the fact that Amesbury has the goods. She expects to deliver them at the Alumni field domicile of the local squad Saturday afternoon.

After Saturday's game, Lowell fans will have but one more opportunity to see the 1924 Red and Gray eleven in action on home territory. Weburn high will ring down the curtain here a week from Saturday, and then Lowell turns its attention to the annual debate with Lawrence high at O'Sullivan park in Lawrence. This is Lowell's objective game of the year, but to get the correct focus on the outcome, the team must go through the remainder of the season undefeated. Amesbury and Weburn are the only obstacles in the way, and Amesbury, it is to be hoped, will be tossed aside Saturday.

Notwithstanding the interest in the home game, practically every high school football follower in Lowell will have his eyes trained on the result of the Lawrence-Haverhill clash in the Haverhill stadium on the same day. The critics will surely begin to prognosticate if Lawrence beats Haverhill by a larger score than Lowell did will do to bear in mind that Lowell took a barrel of punch and power out of that Haverhill outfit one short week before it met Lawrence.

CHARLIE WEINERT WINS OVER LUIS FIRPO

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 12.—Luis Angel Firpo's attempted ring comeback was badly broken up last night when Charlie Weinert, local heavyweight, gave the South American champion a scientific boxing lesson in 12 rounds of a no-decision fight and in the opinion of the referee, the fight was a draw. A comfortable shade over the Argentine.

The "wild bull" was dethroned all the way. In full-blown rashes, he fought a fight with Firpo which was missing and his terrific right which has reaped its harvest of knockout was virtually of no use to him against a clever boxer of the type of Firpo. The Newarker simply poured his left into Firpo's face, at the same time watching for symptoms of the right which Firpo unsuccessfully attempted to use. Employing that left jab with relentless consistency, Weinert tore Firpo's face to shreds. Otherwise Firpo was unhurt. He tried to box Weinert but he did not possess the ability when he wanted to slug. Weinert was too elusive a target to aim at.

BATTLING SIKI TO BOX YOUNG MARLLO

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Battling Siki, erstwhile Senegalese sensation, will face Young Marillo, light heavyweight of New Orleans, in the main bout of 12 rounds at Madison Square Garden tomorrow night, repudiated white tenback, who was injured while training this week. Siki recently returned to the ring following an absence of several months due to an injury received in an automobile accident in Omaha.

Augie Ratner of New York, who obtained a draw with Berlenbach at the milk fund bouts, will meet Alton Jones Hicks in the 12-round semi-final.

BOXING BOUTS TONIGHT

Marco and Gradwell Meet Here Tonight in Moody Club Main Event

Trained to the minute and confident of the outcome Sammy Marco, Canadian lightweight champion, and Willie Gradwell, of Somerville will meet in the main event of the Moody club card in Crescent rink tonight.

Marco has had the advantage of training all week with the veteran Eddie Shevlin, one of the cleverest men of his weight in the business. Eddie has a bout on for Friday night with Bob Lowery, and consequently he was glad of the opportunity to work out with the Canadian.

Shevlin and Marco went at it hammer and tongs in the gymnasium and those who witnessed their work declare both to be in the pink of condition. It is expected that Shevlin will come to town tonight to sit near Marco's corner.

Gradwell, who always keeps in pretty good condition, has worked out diligently with the coach. He has the services of a capable corner, Sparring partners and comes to town prepared for another busy and successful season. He has a bout on for tomorrow night with Hub Adams of Lawrence. Hub is a good hitter and an aggressive worker. Adams is a tough fighter and he hopes to be able to stand Mandella off for a decision on points.

In the preliminary, George Petracca, of the Philadelphia, will meet Sunny Baker who opposes Joe Marlin.

Lowery-Neville Bout

BOSTON, Nov. 12.—Bob Lowery, the newest welterweight star with the tremendous K. O. smash completes his training today in his 10-round session at Mechanics building tomorrow night with Eddie Shevlin, Dartmouth boxing master.

Lowery whose steady climb to the top has proved the latest sensation in boxing circles, proved a popular card since coming to this country from Scotland.

With one of the most dangerous right-hand punches seen in Boston in many years, Lowery handed Nate Siegel such a thrashing that the former welter champion gave up the game while Lowery's recent seven-round knockout of Scoops White proved one of the biggest upsets of the year.

Lowery is always outstanding in the ring, a general. That's what they'll see tomorrow night and in addition, Shevlin today is carrying the fight to his opponent. He is better than ever before.

The Haverhill high school champion is a science to the winds and since his knockout of Young Tansey he has more confidence in his punch to carry him home victorious.

EXPECT 70,000 AT GAME

Columbus, O., Officials Appeal to Home Owners to Accommodate Visitors.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 12.—With every hotel in the city filled to maximum capacity, the thousands of visitors expected to Columbus by the Ohio-Michigan football game here Saturday.

Not since the state fair of 1919 when thousands of visitors sat on the benches in the yard of the state house has there been such a demand for sleeping quarters, according to officials. University officials predict a crowd of perhaps 75,000 will witness the game.

KEARNS TO BE PROMOTER

To Sell Hotel and Erect Arena in Los Angeles—12-Round Bout Legalized

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 12.—Jack Dempsey, former lightweight pugilist, and his manager Jack Kearns, have instructed their agents here to dispose of their Los Angeles apartment and hotel holdings, convert the assets into cash and use the money to erect a new arena suitable for the erection of a large arena.

It is said that Kearns has long been desirous of being his own promoter and that he has decided to legalize in California, he plans to turn to his home state and take a fling at promoting championship matches and developing fighters.

13 OF 700 GAMES DECIDED BY ONE POINT

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Arguments for the abolition of the point after touchdown in football will lack basis if scores continue the present trend. Results of more than 700 contests throughout the country up to this time show that only thirteen games have been decided by one point margins.

Only three of these goal-after-touchdown victories can be found among the so-called large college contests, as follows:

Yale 7, Georgia 6.
Massachusetts Aggies 14; Wesleyan 12.
Tufts 7; Bowdoin 6.

The field goal has defeated the safety on two occasions, Ohio Wesleyan winning over Ohio Northern, 3 to 2, and Hendrix conquering Southwestern University of Texas by the same score.

Two safeties gave Muskegon a victory over Heidelberg, 4 to 2, the latter scoring its points by the same method.

DRAFT FIRE CHIEF RESIGNS

Capt. Frank A. Hunter last night tendered his resignation to the Draught fire engineers because of poor health. He has been commanding the Centre fire company for the past 12 years and has been a member of the department for 15 years. His retirement is generally regretted by many townspeople. The engineers have not taken any action upon the request for retirement as yet.

George Eastman did not succeed in making the celluloid photograph film practicable until 1889.

NOT TO PRESS FOR TAX DISPOSAL OF SEIZED GERMAN PATENTS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The administration has no present intention of pressing for tax legislation at the coming short session in congress. It became known today after Secretary Mellon had conferred with President Coolidge.

It is understood Mr. Mellon does not consider it practical to take up the problem at this session, because of the lack of time, and in view of other difficulties entering into the situation. The administration has not given any consideration so far to the calling of a special session of the new congress after next March 4, to consider tax reduction.

Administration officials feel it would be rather futile to renew the tax fight at the short session since the problem has just been threshed out and the resulting law is just now going into effect.

What congress itself may attempt, without recommendation from the administration is another question. Some elements in the senate and house want immediate action, despite the fact that the republican party leaders seem agreed with the White House as to the inadvisability of such a course. Others are pressing for a special session after March 4, and it remains to be developed whether they will muster sufficient strength to convince the president that such a session should be called.

Unless Mr. Coolidge issues a special session call the new congress will not meet until a year from the coming December.

HOLD-UP MEN RETURN STOLEN BANK BOOKS

WESTFIELD, Mass., Nov. 12.—Three bank books, taken by hold-up men from members of a gambling party of fifty at Little River Inn early Sunday when $5000 in cash also was taken, were returned to the owners today in envelopes postmarked Waterbury, Conn. This fact serves to confirm the belief of those interested that the hold-up gang was composed of Connecticut gamblers. An automobile license taken from a car of one of the alleged gamblers was returned yesterday, also from Waterbury.

NEW BRITISH CABINET MEETS

LONDON, Nov. 12.—(By the Associated Press) An overcast sky, drizzling rain and mist marked the first meeting at Downing street today of Prime Minister Baldwin's cabinet which assemble to discuss and to frame the statement of policy which will appear in the king's address on the opening of parliament.

TWELVE NEGROES VICTIMS OF RIOTING

HARRISBURG, Ky., Nov. 12.—Twelve negroes were victims of rioting at the Dix river dam construction camp, Sunday night and Monday. It developed today. Ten have been secretly sheltered at homes of friends and two are in a hospital here where their recovery is said to be doubtful.

LITTLE JOE IN FALL HOUSE CLEANING TIME FATHER LOSES HIS INTEREST IN MOVING PICTURES

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 12.—Ultimate disposal of the seized German dye patents, should the government recover them from the Chemical Foundation, Inc., would rest with congress, Attorney-General Stone indicated today in summing up the government's suit in the United States circuit court of appeals to have the patents returned. It was the first time in many years that the attorney-general of the United States appeared personally in Philadelphia federal court to plead a government case.

The federal district court in Delaware had dismissed the government's suit to recover. The patents were sold to the Foundation by the alien property custodian and the government contends the disposal was illegal and the price paid inadequate.

GIRL FOUND WITH BULLET WOUND IN HER HEAD

WOBBURN, Nov. 12.—Michael Capron, a contractor, was held at police headquarters today while the shooting of his daughter, Laura, 14 years old, was being investigated. The girl was found at her father's home this morning with a bullet wound in her head. Physicians said she would die.

A passerby heard a shot at the Capron home and notified the police. Capron said that the child, who had been keeping house for him recently, had attempted to commit suicide when he scolded her for small misdemeanors. Capron's wife died here last year to Paris to study art. Now on her return she will devote all her time to her studio in search of a career.

DESERTS SOCIETY

Society holds no charms for Miss Audrey Virginia Carter, beautiful debutante of Washington, D. C. A short season of the Washington social whirl sent her last year to Paris to study art. Now on her return she will devote all her time to her studio in search of a career.

DEMOCRAT WINS PENNSYLVANIA SEAT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—With the return of official figures from the 20th Pennsylvania congressional district, showing the election of a democrat, where unofficial returns had given the seat to a republican, the party lineup in the next congress complete, stands as follows:

Republicans, 245; democrats, 185; farmer-labor, 3; socialists, 2. In the present congress, with all vacancies filled the standing is as follows:

Republicans, 223; democrats, 200; farmer-labor, 1; socialist, 1, Independent, 1.

IN NEW YORK

BY JAMES W. DEAN

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Girls, if you want romance and adventure, come to New York and become a policewoman.

The other night every policewoman on the force was assigned to help in a raid of bootleg joints in the Times square district.

These women were garbed in magnificent evening gowns. They entered cafes on the arms of gallant men in formal black and white. They sat at tables and smiled graciously at head-waiters. And head-waiters beckoned under-aeris and wine was poured—except when horses' necks and gin rickety and such things were served.

And then these ladies and their escorts arose and arrested the head-waiters and the under-waiters and marched them out to waiting patrol wagons.

It takes a crook to catch a crook, they say, but along Broadway the saying is that it takes a girl to catch a bootlegger. Several dozens of prohibition violators were arrested by the lady adults.

Here is a new field for women that promises more excitement than the movies ever offered.

The most desolate place in all New York is Times square at 8 o'clock Sunday morning.

A stray taxi. . . . Sore-footed waiters stumbling along to the subway. . . . Garbage cans in front of gilded jazz palaces, reeking with odors. . . . News vendors arranging their morning papers. . . . Dirt and refuse littering the street. . . . A solitary drunk or dope fiend adding his nauseating bit to the sickening picture. . . . Gone are the lights, the shouts and murmurs, the laughter, the gold-diggers, the high-hats, the flesh pots, the greedy, lustful, searching throng. . . . Only drab commonplace remains. . . . People who labor on Sunday. . . . Dirt. . . . Garbage.

Remo had a law to limit the price of women's dresses two centuries before the beginning of the Christian era.

YACHT CAPTURED IN 4000 DEATHS CAUSED BY BUBONIC PLAGUE

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 12.—In a running fight in Narragansett bay early this morning the coast guard ram chaser CG-2204, captured the 70-foot gas screw yacht Herreshoff, said to hull from Perth Amboy, N. J., and seized many cases of Huxar. It was estimated that the hold of the Herreshoff contained from 250 to 300 cases of whiskey and champagne.

The fleeing ram runner attempted four times to ram the government boat and when ordered to heave to answered with pistol fire. The government then unleashed high-powered rifles and put 10 or 15 bullets through the quarter-inch steel cover of the Herreshoff's cabin.

EXCITED TRADING IN STOCK MARKET

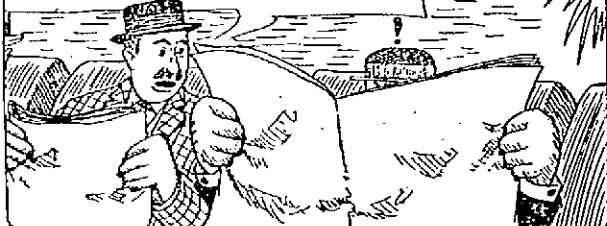

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—An enormous amount of profit-taking in the leading railroad and industries issues failed today to check the trading in stocks, total sales running over 2,000,000 shares for the fourth consecutive full session. More than two score issues attained to peak prices for the year.

LOWELL SCHOOL GIRL SWINDLED

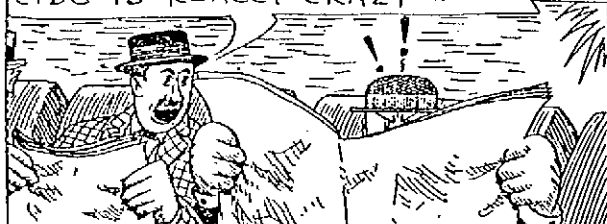

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—Ben Newmark, assistant state fire marshal, charged in a federal warrant with counterfeiting was released today in bonds of $500. Hearing was set for Nov. 20. Secret service operatives said that counterfeit war savings stamps, believed to have been circulated by Newmark's alleged gang had been bought by a school girl in Lowell, Mass.

BOOKS

This being Children's Book week the survey suggests these as the best new children's books to reach them:

Tony Sarg's Book for Children.
Numbur Two Joy Street (a collection of stories).
Friends of Digglely Dan, Edwin P. Norwood.
America, by George Philip Krapp.
Tales from Nature's Wonderland, William Hornaday.
Doctor Doolittle's Circus, Hugh Lofting.
Island of the Mighty, Pauline Cullen.
Hunt the Jungle Land, Dhan Mukerji.

BY THE N.E.A. BOOK SURVEY

D. H. Lawrence, the distinguished Englishman who adopted "Sarg," N. M., has stepped out of his role as psychoanalyst to write a really distinguished novel in which the complex clines play second fiddle.

It is "The Boy in the Bush" (Seltzer) in which Lawrence collaborates with M. I. Skinner and it is a far departure from the Lawrence of "The Lost Girl," "The Sea and Sardinia" and "The Rainbow." It is the same Lawrence who wrote "Sons and Lovers," but become more assured and settled.

The book has all the elements of a good swashbuckling, fast-moving story. Flights, feuds, loves, lusts, etc., and yet because of the incessant swing from the objective story to a subjective one, it escapes being the commonplace adventure tale or a mere piece of literary job work.

Briefly the situation is this: An English boy of "wild" tendencies is sent by his family to an Australian cattle station where he becomes part of a pioneer Australian family and shares the primitive wild life. Conquest of rough virgin country leads to steady communal life and then the inevitable restrictions upon individual freedom. In this device is rounded the cycle of most race development.

This is not a book for the sentimental or unsophisticated reader. The passions become as primitive as the country and its background and there are elemental scenes and events given in all their blunt and primal dress.

In drawing the Ellis family and "the boy" Lawrence has done a distinguished piece of writing.

This surveyor places the volume at the top of the Lawrence list.

The habits of the "mollusks" and the "bunko steers" alike are intimately pictured in "Keys to Crookdom" (Appleton), by George C. Henderson, probably one of the most elaborate and complete volumes on crooks to be written. It differs from ordinary crookology in that here each type of criminal is shown in action and actual scenes from life are fitted into the chapters.

Henderson, for some years a reporter in Oakland, Cal., has had the aid of August Vollmer, famous "scientific chief of police" and his data has been contributed by a dozen police authorities. It is absolutely authoritative and besides its value to writers, policemen, newspapermen and criminologists, presents to the layman a clear picture of the types of crook and the habits. There is, in an appendix, a dictionary of crook slang which is quite the most complete this surveyor has ever seen.

Quite a different volume of the "crime school" is the maiden volume of Richard E. Enright, New York's commissioner of police and a noted crime expert. It is "Vultures of the Dark" (Brentano), and is an authentic mystery story dealing with the running down of a great crime organization, preying upon fashionable New Yorkers. It is a real thriller.

Still another type of crime tale is contained in "D. C. I." (Doubleday, Page), written by Major C. E. Russell, who was provost marshal at Bordeaux during the war and who tells real life thrillers from the chapters of the department of criminal investigation.

"Why, or why doesn't someone revive 'The Chatterbox'?" demands one surveyor in running over the new children's books—this being children's book week. The nearest approach is a second edition of "Joy Street" (D. Appleton), a fine collection from such excellent writers as Walter de la Mare, A. A. Milne, G. K. Chesterton and Hugh Walpole. The illustrations are varied and many quite good. This should be a popular Christmas book.

Menus for a Family

Breakfast—Stewed prunes, hominy with thin cream, lamb and potato hash on toast, buttered toast, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Cream of onion soup, croquettes, cottage cheese sandwiches, lemon jelly with whipped cream, milk, tea.

Dinner—Beef loaf, steamed rice, creamed celery, vegetable salad, rolled omelet, crab apple jelly, apple cream pudding, milk, coffee.

The vegetable salad is made of shredded cabbage, tart apples and cooked cold beets cut in half-inch dice. Moisten with French dressing and serve in leaves of head lettuce. Sprinkle with finely chopped nuts before serving.

Lamb and Potato Hash
Combine equal amounts of minced cooked lamb and boiled potatoes with canned tomatoes to moisten. Pour into a well buttered frying pan and bake in a hot oven until brown. Serve on toast. The hash should be very moist when put into the oven.

Cream of Onion Soup
One cup thinly sliced onions, 3 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons bacon fat, 1/4 tablespoons flour, 2 1/2 cups milk, 1 egg, salt and pepper.

Melt butter and bacon fat and add onions. Cover and simmer over a slow fire until onions are tender. It will take about 20 minutes. Add flour and stir until perfectly blended. Add milk and cook, stirring to prevent sticking until the boiling point is reached. Rub through a coarse sieve. Return to the stove and stir in egg slightly beaten. Stir and cook until very hot but do not let boil. Season with pepper and salt if necessary. If the bacon is very salty, season carefully.

Cottage Cheese Sandwiches
One cup dry cottage cheese, 1-3 cup finely chopped nuts, 1-2 cup chopped dates, orange juice to make moist. Combine nuts, dates and cheese and mix thoroughly. Add orange juice to make moist. Put between thin slices of white wheat bread and butter.

Beef Loaf
One and one-half pounds round steak, 1 tablespoon minced parsley, 1 egg, 1/2 cup dried bread crumbs, 3 slices bacon, 1/2 teaspoon onion juice, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1 cup boiling water.

Chop meat very fine or have it ground at the butcher's. Put bacon through food chopper with bread crumbs. Mix beef, crumbs and bacon thoroughly. Add parsley, egg, onion juice, salt and pepper and work with a fork until smooth. Shape in a roll and put in a buttered dripping pan. Dredge with flour and pour water into the pan at one side. Bake from 30 to 40 minutes, depending on the thickness of the loaf. Baste every five minutes with water in pan. (Copyright, 1924, The Lowell Sun.)

CORN

Lift Off—No Pain!

Doesn't Hurt one bit. Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers. Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the foot calluses, without soreness or irritation.—Adv.

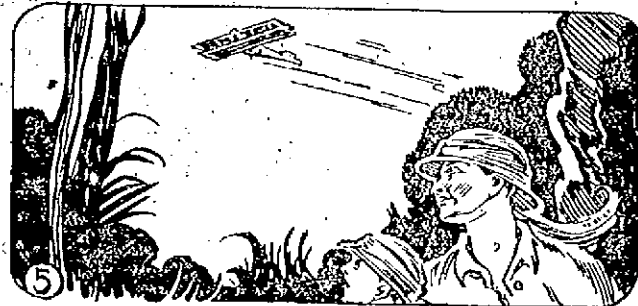

Home Circulation is Best

Advertisers who use The Sun consistently get greater returns on the money invested than through any other Lowell newspaper. There's a reason. The Sun goes into more homes in Lowell and suburbs than any other Lowell paper and ninety per cent of Sun readers read no other Lowell newspaper. Furthermore, ninety five per cent of The Sun circulation is confined to the city of Lowell and immediate vicinity.

Through another forest and then on to another plain and Jack and the bear hunter were back in the open space where they had watched the aviator sail away. "He's not back yet," said Jack. "No," replied the hunter, "but he's coming now." And up in the sky Jack saw the airplane.

"Oh, I guess I'd rather have my feet safe on the ground," laughed the hunter. And with that he and Jack both got off their horses. Then the plane took a long, sweeping glide and, with the engine shut off, coasted to the ground and landed right near where Jack stood. (Continued.)

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barton

"HELP, HELP!" CRIED THE COOK'S VOICE JUST THEN, AS HE RUSHED OUT OF HIS KITCHEN WAVING HIS ARMS WILDLY.

When Mrs. Goose grabbed the magic dust-pan from the peddler in the yard of the palace of the King of Yum Yum Land, she flew up to the tower where the white crow was waiting. "I've got it!" she cried delightedly. "I've saved Daddy Gander's dust-pan for him. It's a good thing we came when we did."

"There goes Daddy Gander now," said the crow nudging Mrs. Goose with his wing.

"They could hear Daddy's voice saying, 'Well, good-bye, King. That was a fine dinner we had. But I'll just put in a good word for home folks. The dinner your cook prepared with the magic fork was good, but Mrs. John's home-made bread was better.'"

"I agree with you," said the king. "Help! Help!" cried the cook's voice just then, as he rushed out of his kitchen waving his arms wildly. "The magic fork is gone! Someone stole it!"

At that Mrs. Goose and the crow flew down. "It was the peddler," they said. "We saw him putting a fork in his pocket."

"Good riddance," declared the king. "Let him keep both the magic tempt and the fork. Magic never will take the place of hard work. Cook, you heard what I said."

"Yes," said the cook meekly. "Then back to your kitchen and kettles!" cried the king. "And hereafter when I am hungry, do not serve me crumpets and tea."

"Yes!" said the cook still more meekly. And he returned to his kitchen.

"I hope that old peddler never comes back," said the king. "He's made more trouble in my kingdom than six barrels of monkeys."

"That may be," said Daddy Gander, "but if it hadn't been for the peddler and the trouble he made, we never would have found the House-That-Jack-Built."

"How do you know you've found it?" remarked Mrs. Goose.

"Hum! I know that it is right up there sitting on that cloud in the sky," said Daddy. "That's where it blew when Mrs. John's bread-sponge floated it so high."

Suddenly he stopped talking and his eyes nearly popped out of his head. "It's gone!" he cried staring

TO CLARIFY SITUATION

H. M. Sein Said Youth Would
ment Issued

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 13.—The resolutions committee of the Peace Congress of The American Council of the World Alliance for International Friendship through the churches is today considering a resolution intended to clarify the situation caused by the address of Herbert H. Sein, New York student, which caused a furor at yesterday's session.

Sein, who described himself as a Mexican-born internationalist, said that the youth of the world will rally to a united refusal to fight in war. The speaker's utterances brought a rebuke from a local delegate and mingled cheers and antagonistic demonstrations.

Dr. Henry A. Atkinson, general secretary of the American Council, said this draft of a resolution was under consideration.

"That the alliance sympathizes with the feeling of young men of the horrors of war and looks forward to the education of young men in these principles until there can be established agencies to substitute reason for force in international disputes and at the same time stands against any type of internationalism that aims to destroy the confidence and love of young men in our country, that dishonors our flag or deprecates a true Christian patriotism."

The general topic for discussion at the closing session this afternoon will be "Contribution of the churches to peace."

GARRISON AND KINDLER AT THE AUDITORIUM

The opening event of the evening series of Parker lectures is scheduled for tomorrow evening at the Memorial Auditorium. It will be a joint recital of Mabel Garrison, soprano, and Hans Kindler, cellist, two of the best known musical artists in America.

Miss Garrison takes the place announced for Maria Kurenko, the Russian soprano, because of the difficulties over her visa. Her performance is expected to be a most successful one, as she has, as yet, been unable to reach this country.

Miss Garrison has not only a voice of wonderful sweetness, which she is able to use with artistic excellence, but she has a sincerity and charm of manner which at once captivates her audience. She is to appear in a rich and varied program and will sing Gounod's "Ave Maria" with Mr. Kindler's accompaniment on the cello.

Hans Kindler is a young man of indubitable rank with that small galaxy of stars who stand at the pinnacle of the musical profession. His performance is expected to be a most successful one, as he has, as yet, been unable to reach this country.

A dazzling technique, a warm, rich tone glowing with color and a poetic insight and infinite variety of expression are outstanding characteristics of Kindler's art. Added to his superb musical equipment is a personality of rare charm, which captivates his audiences before he plays a single note.

As in the case of many musicians who have achieved special distinction, Hans Kindler comes of a musical family. His mother being an accomplished pianist. He was born in Rotterdam, in 1892. Famous musicians, among them Busoni, Widor, the Joachim quartet, and Wilke, then a student, were frequent visitors at the Kindler home, where they often participated in musical-making. It was there that Kindler got his first enthusiasm for music, especially the cello.

ANNOUNCE CASES SETTLED OUT OF COURT

Actions of tort brought by Margaret P. Sullivan against the City of Lowell and the Lafol Coal Co. involving injuries received by the plaintiff when she fell on a ledge at the city office in Gorham street, were settled out of court this morning. A jury to hear the case was empaneled yesterday afternoon, but announcement of settlement was made at the opening of court today.

Another settlement was announced in the case of William Mullen against James H. Sparks, marked for trial today. Mullen sought to recover for damage sustained to his automobile when it was in collision with the city ambulance at the intersection of Thorndike and Middlesex streets.

CONTRACT FOR NEW NAVAL FLYING BOAT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—A contract for a naval flying boat capable of making a sustained flight from the coast of Honolulu has been signed by the bureau of naval aeronautics. Specifications call for a proven capacity of five passengers and a ton of freight.

The contract was regarded in naval circles as the first step toward filling a recognized deficiency in the fleet for long distance maneuvers and if it meets expectations the new plane will be used as a model for the organization of a special fleet auxiliary capable of independent operation 1500 miles from permanent base.

FINED $25 FOR KILLING DEER

NEW BEDFORD, Nov. 13.—Joseph Laird, claimed to be a deer hunter in the woods, was fined $25 today for killing a deer in the woods in Wareham court this morning that he must have found at least three. Expert deer hunters testified that a large deer head, appearing antlers, two dripping forequarters of unequal size and two fore legs wouldn't make fewer animals. Laird was fined $25 for the killings.

FRESHMEN CLIP HAIR OF WOMEN INSTRUCTORS

BATON ROUGE, La., Nov. 13.—What-ever action that may be taken as a result of the annual hair-cutting activities of students of Louisiana state university, which ended yesterday when members of the freshman class invaded the Baton Rouge high school and cut the hair of three women instructors, and girl students, is a thing of the past. The hair-cutting of the freshmen class will be held within a few days of Col. T. D. Boyd, president of the institution from Washington.

The Baton Rouge school authorities have placed the matter before the President E. L. Scott, but it is believed that decision as to action will be held up until Mr. Boyd's return.

High school teachers stated that many of the students, mostly girls, were forcibly taken from their classrooms. The teachers also were taken out, but two succeeded in fighting themselves free.

The hair-clipping started Tuesday night, when sophomores shaved the heads of 340 freshmen.

Butler Appointed to Succeed Lodge as U. S. Senator

United States senator in opposition to David I. Walsh, democrat, but President Coolidge's wish that the manufacturer undertake direction of the republican national campaign brought him into the larger field as chairman of the national committee instead. The success of the republican campaign was followed by a vacation intended to last two or three weeks, but Senator Lodge's grave illness cut it short.

It had been understood that Mr. Butler would have a place in the new cabinet of President Coolidge and that continued association with the president in this connection was desired by him, but the senator's death changed the plans.

The senator-designate, who "practiced law at New Bedford for years and was elected to the house and senate over a period of six years, ending as president of the latter body before he came to this city in 1895, has been active principally as head of cotton manufacturing interests since that time. His interests also included power and railway companies.

The selection of Mr. Butler by Governor Proctor this morning issued a proclamation continuing in force the closed season on game and against trapping in Vermont until Nov. 30th. The previous proclamation closed the season until Nov. 17.

The governor made no statement in announcing the appointment. Summoning the state house newspaper representatives to his office, he said: "Gentlemen, I believe I have no surprise. I am now signing the commission of William M. Butler as United States senator to succeed Mr. Lodge."

White House Planned
WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Word of the appointment of William M. Butler as senator from Massachusetts was received with undisguised approval today by the White House.

Throughout his service as republican field marshal in the presidential campaign, Mr. Butler worked in close cooperation with President Coolidge and his successor in the senate is regarded as adding to the membership of that body an unfailing supporter of administration policies and an advisor to whom the president can turn trustfully when he seeks counsel on major questions of legislation.

The selection was expected among those close to Mr. Coolidge. There has been no outward indication that such a choice was advised from Washington but it was no secret that among the president's most intimate friends Butler was favored for the place made vacant by the death of Senator Lodge. Unusual interest was taken here in the appointment both because the vacancy was in the president's home state and because of Butler's position as chairman of the republican national committee and his intimate association with the president's policies.

For those reasons the appointment is expected to have at least an indirect bearing on the question of selecting a party leader in the senate in succession to Senator Lodge. There has been no suggestion that Butler, a new senator, will be elevated to that post, but his advice undoubtedly will be sought when the question of a new alignment comes up for decision.

320 MEMBERS OF HOUSE ENDORSED BY DRYS WIN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Analyzing the results of the election from a "wet and dry" viewpoint, Wayne E. Wheeler, general counsel of the Anti-Saloon league, today declared 320 of the 432 members of the house endorsed by the drys had been successful.

The association against the prohibition amendment," Wheeler said, "made 17 endorsements of candidates for congress, of whom 82 were elected. They openly opposed 252 candidates, of whom 215 were elected. Eight of the candidates endorsed by the wet organization either repudiated this endorsement or had dry voting records.

"Of the 33 senators elected, 17 who were re-elected are listed as dry, one is outspokenly wet, and two vote for most enforcement legislation; while all but two of the thirteen newly elected senators are favorable to prohibition enforcement. Most of these were fought by the wets.

"The total number of members-elect of the house, who are listed as favorable to the dry cause is 320, while in the senate 72 out of the 96 members will support legislation to make prohibition effective. Six others favor part of the legislation advocated by the drys."

INTERCOLLEGIATE CROSS COUNTRY RUN

BOSTON, Nov. 13.—The New England intercollegiate cross-country championship over the Franklin park course next Saturday will have 16 colleges represented by close to 200 runners. The entry list made today includes those of Tufts, Bates, Boston college, Bowdoin, Northeastern college, Brown, Boston university, Holy Cross, Massachusetts college, Middlebury, Rhode Island State, Maine, New Hampshire, Wesleyan and Williams.

Maine, now coached by Frank Kennedy, former member of the M.I.T., which won the Men's championship a week ago, is sending a strong team, and the barriers of M.I.T., Holy Cross and Williams are expected to contend with them for the team title.

Individual honors will be at stake also, with Leo Larabee of Holy Cross, S. H. Hilditch of Maine, and Leonard of Boston college, and T. W. Bennis of M.I.T., captain, most likely to be up at the finish of the five-mile hill and dash chase.

Jury Acquits Rep. J. P. Hill Borah Urges Extra Session

the opinion that the clause of the Volstead act defining beverages of more than half of one per cent. alcoholic content as "wine" and "beer" apply to home-made wine and beer, provided the product is non-intoxicating "in fact."

Judge Soper also indicated by his rulings and his charge to the jury that the burden rested upon the government to show that such home products were intoxicating and a violation of the law.

Very Few Cases of Contagious Diseases Here

by school nurses and physicians so that if there is any cause to believe there is an opportunity for the disease to spread, the members of the family in which the disease has broken out and any persons who have come in contact with them are watched and the first symptom of illness are isolated.

Because of this system in the schools, it is believed that any minor outbreak which might occur could easily be checked and that persons stricken isolated from any others who would be liable to either catch or spread the disease.

In the milk inspector's department there is also careful watch being kept for any sign of infected milk. Milk inspector Melvin Master said this morning that if any outbreak of scarlet fever should be reported along one or two milk routes, his department would immediately check up on the source of the supply of the milk in the infected area and, if traces of any infection were found, isolate that source.

Health officials are optimistic, however, that there is but little danger of any outbreak here because of the school follow-up system and also because of the very efficient milk inspection service rendered by Inspector Master and his assistants.
